Desperate Dope Seeker Napped After Holdup

Luther Thompson, 27-year-old alleged robber who was captured Monday morning by police after a wild automobile chase which he led in a stolen car, was bound over to the Grand Jury Tuesday on a charge of armed robbery.

Thompson is accused of holding up the Miller Drug Co., 1901 W. Morris, in an attempt to get narcotics. He escaped with about $32, according to police.

"I want your narcotics," was the demand of Thompson when he entered the drugstore brandishing a revolver, according to J. Lee Miller, owner of the store.

When informed that there were no narcotics in the store, Thompson allegedly forced Miller to the rear of the store and took the money from the safe after making Miller open it.

Police observed Thompson driving east in the 2200 block of East 10th and went after him, having received a report that a car of the description of the one Thompson was driving had been stolen. The license plates on Thompson's car matched those of the stolen vehicle.

The alleged bandit opened his car up in an effort to shake the officers and the fired two shots. Thompson's car crashed into a house at 11th and Jefferson when he was unable to make the sharp turn.

As he attempted to run away after jumping from the car, officers say Thompson discarded a 32 sunb-nosed revolver. He was caught at the side of the house his car had run into.

The original charge of vehicle taking was nolleed in favor of the larger crime.

Four Begin Bus Driver Training

Four Indianapolis Negroes were enrolled in the Indianapolis Railways' school for instruction of operators last Monday.

They had successfully passed out of a group of about 35, written aptitude test, rigid physical test and the public passenger operator's test given by state officials.

The four are: Keith Strader, Dudley Storms, Jr., Lester McClung and Allen C. Saunders. After completion of their 26 days of training they will be assigned regular runs.

Meanwhile, the search for selection of others who can qualify for transit vehicle operators is continuing through assistance of the Yankee Doodle Civic Foundation headed by Attorney Frank R. Beckwith and The Indianapolis Recorder, at its offices, 518 Indiana avenue.

AME Conference Plans Atom-Age Youth Autopsy

The grave problems faced by the youth of today and the application of sound religious principles to changing conditions will be discussed by delegates to the Sunday School and A. C. E. League convention of the Southwestern district of the AME Church meeting June 30 through July 2 at Bethel AME Church, Seymour, Ind.

Theme of the convention of pastors and young people is: "Christian Young People in the Atomic Age."

Directing this activity rightly viewed as a fundamental factor in a youth training program for future usefulness will be Rt. Rev. George W. Baber, presiding bishop, Fourth Episcopal district; Rev. John W. Wright, presiding elder; Rev. J. P. Q. Wallace, associate presiding elder; Miss Anna P. Stout, state and Southwest district Sunday School superintendent and Mrs. Lillian Majors, state A. C. E. League superintendent.

Tuesday morning will be delivered by Rev. P. R. James, with Reverends Earl Nolcox, A. H. Davis, J. J. Handy, Jonathan A. Dames and W. T. Hill participating in the program.

Bias Costs Yearly $30 Billion

DEL AWARE, Ohio (ANP)—Racial prejudice in the U.S. is costing taxpayers from $15,000,000 to $30,000,000 annually, Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, told graduating seniors at Ohio Wesleyan University here last week.

"highly provable figures showing that discrimination—while diminishing—costs $15,000,000 to $30,000,000 yearly."

This, she said, is "because of people not allowed to reach their full potential, not permitted to earn the salaries their work merits, and therefore, not able to expand the domestic market for the goods we produce, or to pay the taxes they would be paying were they realizing their potential."

Ball Game Has Fist Fight, Girl On 2nd, Sheriff

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

The Clowns-Memphis game at Victory Field Wednesday night had everything but parachute jumpers.

Three kinds of battles were going on at the same time—baseball, legal and fistic.

A fat crowd of 4,835 paid 5th largest turnout at Victory Field this season including the Indianapolis Indians—looked on as deputy sheriffs, girl second-basemen and basketball coaches turned umpire strolled across the scene like something out of "Hellzapoppin'."

And that's just what was poppin', if you ask the ball clubs who departed without a penny of all that gate. When we last saw Promoter Wesley O. Jackson who had built the biggest Negro game of several years, he was lower than a turtle and madder than a hornet.

Before we forget it, the Clowns won 3 to 0 in as sweet a pitcher's duel as you'll want to see. Ted Richardson was the winning hurler, and we hope to get back to the game if we don't run out of space.

THE LEGAL FIREWORKS came as Deputy Sheriff George Sebern served a court order on "the Indianapolis Clowns," the Negro American League, Syd Pollard, owner of the Clowns, Buster Haywood, Wesley O. Jackson, Goose Curry, the Memphis Red Sox and Dr. W. S. Martin.

The order, issued by Judge Norman E. Brennan in Superior Court Room 2, summoned these men to court June 26 for hearing as to whether a restraining order should be granted, prohibiting them from

Not Too Bad—Not Too Good—

A Northside mother of four charging her mate with being a "lazy husband" Wednesday in Municipal Court IV got cold feet and went to bat for him after Judge Scott A. McDonald threatened to send the accused man away for "about a year."

Mrs. Adilaide McGibbaney, 2362 Highland place, told the judge that her husband, Telman, drank too much and never brought his check home. Their children weren't adequately provided for and McGibbaney contributed nothing to her support, according to the wife.

"How well could you get along without him for about a year?" Judge McDonald asked Mrs. McGibbaney.

Quickly reversing her stand, Mrs. McGibbaney said, "He isn't like that all the time. Only when he drinks." "He's kind to the children, and they love him. The children think he's God."

Judge McDonald fined McGibbaney $25 and costs and suspended a 30-day sentence.

William Rapier, patrolman, arrested McGibbaney.

Suspend 2 Officers For Breaking Rules

A veteran policeman of over eight years' service and a rookie with less than six months on the force were suspended Monday upon their conviction on charges which included conduct unbecoming an officer in both cases.

William T. Lee, 2613 Shriver avenue, was suspended for 20 days after being convicted by a board of captains of the conduct violation charge and a charge of insubordination to a superior officer.

Philip Parker, 328 Bernard place, was handed a 10-day suspension by Police Chief John Ambuhl.

Both men are patrolmen. Lee was appointed to the force Feb. 26, 1945. Parker went on Feb. 5, 1953.

Parker, who had served only five months of his probationary period of a year, was arrested Wednesday noon of last week when other officers reportedly found him creating a disturbance while under the influence of liquor in the 400 block of Indiana avenue.

Inspector Ralph Bader said the received a complaint against the rookie policeman and sent another officer out to investigate.

A veteran of six years in the Marines, Parker worked at the postoffice before going on the force. His service record was viewed favorably by Chief Ambuhl.

Georgian Wants J. C. Back In D. C.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (ANP)—A Southern Democrat introduced a bill in the House of Representatives last week aimed at repealing the portions of the District's 1872 and 1873 "lost" laws banning segregation in restaurants, bars and other eating places.

The action was taken by Rep. W. M. Wheeler of Georgia as his answer to the recent U. S. Supreme Court ruling which upheld the acts of the old legislative assembly.

In introducing the bill, Rep. Wheeler said it seemed odd to him that the people of this country have reached the place where they seem to allow roughly 10 percent of the population to dictate to the other 90 percent.

He claimed that the Supreme Court's decision is obviously a pre-

11 Arrested As Police Continue Narcotics Drive

Dope peddlers and users were fleeing underground fast this week as local narcotics teams clamped the lid on tighter than ever in their drive to crush the people supplying dope to the users within Indianapolis.

Eleven persons were arrested last week-end in raids on alleged dope dens, and under other circumstances.

Detective Sergeants Henry McMahon and Fred Swego and Detectives Anthony Watkins and Samuel Gibbs, teamed as a special narcotics detail, lowered the boom on local dope handlers Friday of last week when they set up four raids that netted nine persons.

Working with clock-like precision, the narcotics squad, aided by several other squads of police, hit all four of the places almost simultaneously.

Four persons were arrested at 928 Paca when police went there with a search warrant and found 35 caps of heroin, three hypodermic needles, a syringe, and several pills they believe to be dope.

Arrested were: GERALDINE ROBERTS, 26, 928 Paca

SAMUEL ROBERTS, 29, 928 Paca

HERBERT BAILEY, 49, 308 W. North

LIONEL WARREN PRINCE, 31, 928 Paca

They were charged with pre-violation of the 1935 Narcotics Act. In Municipal Court IV last Saturday their cases were continued to Friday of this week and they were placed under $1,000 bond each.

ROBERT HATCHER, JR., 420 N. West, and AUDRIA STARKS, 22, were arrested on the narcotics charge when officers went to Hatcher's West street address.

Confiscated were 46 1/2-grain morphine sulphate tablets and a quantity of other pills and powders. Hatcher's case was continued to next Friday while Miss Starks was scheduled to stand trial Friday of this week. Each is under a $1,000 bond.

MORRIS SHOTWELL, 33, 748 W. North, and MARIAN BRYANT, 26, 945 S. Kenwood avenue, were arrested at Shotwell's address and booked on the narcotics charge.

Miss Bryant was scheduled to be tried Friday of this week in Municipal Court IV. Shotwell was

Judge Hears J C Housing Case

Accuse Husband of Aiding Wife's Rape

Charles Posey, 20, 425 N. California, was bound over to the Grand Jury Tuesday on a charge of rape as police intensified a search for his alleged victim's husband who they say aided Posey in his reported crime.

Nathaniel Shirley was the object of the search. Police say he beat his wife, Dorothy Shirley, June 5 while Posey raped her.

Parents of four children who were in the home at the time of the incident, the Shirleys live at 900 Indiana avenue.

The momentous decision filed in Federal Court last week testing the right of a public housing agency using public funds to discriminate and segregate in an Evansville housing project rested in the hands of Judge William E. Stekler Wednesday.

Attorney Henry J. Richardson, assisted by Miss Constance Motley, NAACP, New York, brought testimony from four Negro women of Evansville tending to show that the Evansville Housing Authority had refused them apartments solely because of their race.

Opposing attorneys, Robert Hayes and William T. Fitzgerald, of Evansville, representing the local agency contended the housing agency which handles low rent projects for the Southern Indiana city maintained its segregation policy in line with the ruling of the United States Supreme Court many years ago that "separate but equal facilities" were within the sanction of the federal constitution.

AT THE END of four hours of testimony given with the appropriate degree of austerity of the Federal Court, Judge Stekler announced he would delay a ruling until the end of this month, probably giving attorneys an opportu-

'FISH TAIL' FINE JAILS NY BEAUTY

NEW YORK (ANP)—Attractive Doris Ray, 25, who said she was secretary to a theatrical producer, was hauled into traffic court last week for failing to answer 17 tickets for violations.

Driving up in her Cadillac, the young lady was unable to pay the $300 fine, saying she needed the money for hospital expenses.

Instead, she took the alternative of spending 17 days in the clink.

Girl With Long Police Record Escapes Trial

Bad, bad Naptowners who resort to switch-blade knives in showing their "toughness" should have been buoyed considerably this week when one of their lot was set free of murder charges without even having to stand trial.

Olevia "Jitterbug" Brown, 26-year-old who stabbed to death Simon Mobley December 2 last year, was freed in Hancock County Court last Saturday because representatives of the Marion County Prosecutor said there was insufficient evidence to warrant a trial.

OLEVIA BROWN

She was represented by Attorney H. Perry Smith.

Her release from the murder charge was probably Jitterbug's biggest triumph over Indianapolis laws which she has flaunted during an 11-year career of crime without punishment.

Arrested 37 times since 1942 when she started out with a vagrancy charge, Miss Brown has been sentenced only to a total of 173 days and received a total of $89 in fines, plus costs with the various fines.

Prior to the murder charge, she was charged with assault and battery with intent to murder five times. In every case she reportedly cut or stabbed someone. On two other occasions she was charged simply with assault and battery.

She has been arrested 14 times for vagrancy; three drunks; five disorderly conducts and three violations of the 1935 Beverage Act. Her arrest record also includes violation of the venerable ordinance, using profanity, violation of probation and petit larceny.

"Jitterbug," according to witnesses, stabbed Mobley in the heart as the 28-year-old man ducked and dodged in an attempt to get away from the flashing blade of her switch-blade knife.

THE STABBING took place in the Paradise Inn, a tavern at 798 Indiana avenue, following an argument between Miss Brown and Mobley.

The detective division of the local police department has only one eyewitness account of the stabbing on file. Miss Dorothy Brandy, a friend of Miss Brown, made the statement.

Miss Brandy said "Jitterbug" stabbed the man after he beat and kicked her. Miss Brandy was there.

However, The Recorder learned that other people were also there. Mike Cassorla, owner of the tavern in a sworn statement to The Recorder Wednesday, said he saw the whole incident and that Miss Brown was plainly the aggressor.

CASSORLA SAID Miss Brown, Miss Brandy and Mobley came into his tavern with another man and another woman the morning of the fatal affray.

After some drinks Mobley and Miss Brandy engaged in an argument. Mobley got up from the booth in which the party had sat

Watch the Kids! Chief Pleads

As the doors of local schools closed for the summer, Chief of Police John E. Ambuhl this week issued an appeal to the city's drivers for "lower speeds, extraordinary precaution and sustained watchfulness."

More than 67,000 grade school pupils started their vacations June 12.

"Inasmuch as their imaginative minds are usually filled with just about everything except traffic and safety, we are asking all motorists to be extra, extra alert during this vacation and playtime," Chief Ambuhl appealed.

"When driving near playgrounds, parks, or vacant lots slow down your speed and be ready with your brakes," the Chief asked.

At the time of his appeal to adults, Chief Ambuhl also appealed to the children to take it easy and play only in those places that are safe.

"Don't swim in unguarded swimming holes," he pleaded.

Ind. Eastern Star Meets Next Week

The Prince Hall Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will hold its 65th annual meeting Monday through Thursday in the Masonic Hall, 351 Indiana avenue.

Central District (No. 2), of which Mrs. Alberta Vaughn is Deputy Grand Matron, is hostess to the meeting. Included in the district are:

Fidelity Temple, Shelbyville; St. Andrew's Temple, Bloomington; and Leah, Pride of West and Purify Temples, all of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Mattie Anderson, Indianapolis, is Grand Matron of the Eastern Star of the state of Indiana.

Mrs. Ethel B. Smith, Indianapolis, general chairman of the Grand Chapter Committee, announced this week that the hostess group has made final preparations for the event.

The Grand Chapter Reception will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in Simpson Methodist Church.

The Masonic Brothers will entertain the ladies at the Masonic Hall Tuesday night following a style show to be held earlier in the evening in Northwestern Community Center.

The Grand Chapter Concert will be given Thursday at 8 p.m. in the New Era Baptist Church as a climax to the four-day conference. Plans for the affair were completed Wednesday during a special meeting in the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA.

TOP TENTH: Among the graduates of Attucks high school last week were the following, shown above, who ranked highest in scholastic achievements.

New Bethel Baptist Church Was Attucks Scholarship Donor

The name of New Bethel Baptist Church should have appeared in the list, published in this newspaper last week, of those institutions that gave scholarships to Attucks high school students.

Principal Russell A. Lane explained that failure to include New Bethel's scholarship, which was awarded to Myrtle Reades among those announced at Attucks commencement June 8 at Cadle Tabernacle was due to an unintentional oversight on the part of the Attucks scholarship committee. "New Bethel Baptist Church," he added, "has been a staunch supporter of Attucks scholarship drives for a number of years."

The scholarship was for $100.

Name College Fund Workers

William D. Mackey, insurance executive and member of the Indiana Legislature and Fitzhugh T aylor, co-chairman of the United Negro College Fund drive, announced this week the list of well known local business and professional leaders serving on the steering committee.

They are: Allen W. Clowes, C. W. Efronson, W. C. Griffith, William P. Flynn, A. W. Harrington, Rev. Plummer D. Jacobs, George A. Kuhn, Perry E. O'Neal, T. R. L. Sinclair, James Stuart, Evans Woollen, Jr., and Russell L. White, treasurer.

The local drive is part of a nationwide campaign, headed by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to raise $1,500,000 for 31 Negro colleges which get no support from public funds but which provide the bulk of educational opportunities on the higher level for many Negro youths, especially in the South.

EIGHT GET DEGREES AT BUTLER UNIV.

By RONALD DAVIS

Eight Indianapolis Negroes were among the 428 seniors receiving degrees from Butler University June 8.

Marilyn Glenn Blackmon, Frank Campbell, Rosa L. McClung, Frances Estella Quarles, and John R. Wilson received Bachelor of Science degrees from the College of Education.

Lillian Cordelia Brown was awarded a Bachelor of Music in music education and Trill Yvonne Stewart a Bachelor of Music degree in composition.

Mrs. Beatrice Stephens Bowles received a Master of Arts degree in education.

John Evans, 1st Y Head Here, Dies in St. Louis

Echoes of footsteps along the corridor of time faded into the memory of the first days of the Senate Avenue YMCA at the report of the death of John Williams Evans at St. Louis Monday.

Mr. Williams served the local institution as its first paid executive secretary from September 1902 to May 1903. He had received a Bachelor of Science degree from Wilberforce University in 1901.

He continued his education after leaving here, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wabash College in 1908 and a Master of Arts degree from the University of Iowa in 1929.

He served as principal of the Lincoln elementary school in St. Louis for 27 years until his retirement in 1947. During his active years he was a member of the board of curators of Lincoln University at Jefferson City, Mo., and was cited by the American Teachers Association for significant contributions to Negro education.

MR. EVANS was guest of honor at the 50th anniversary celebration at the Senate Avenue Y conducted under supervision of F. E. DeFrantz, executive secretary since retired.

The span of years between the service of Mr. Evans here and that of Mr. DeFrantz marks a notable record of improvement reflected in the city's growth and the important part played in it by the Senate Y.

When Mr. Evans headed the institution 51 years ago, activities were housed in modest rooms in the 300 block of Indiana avenue, near the present Joyner's Chili parlor.

PROGRESS AND EXPANSION were marked by the Y's removal in 1912 to its present location at Senate avenue and Michigan street.

The march of time will record another forward step when the institution completes construction of a new building, funds for which were allocated this spring following a successful fund-raising drive.

Membership of the Y increased from 75 under Mr. Evans to a high of 5,150 several years ago under Mr. DeFrantz.

The Senate Y's present position of major influence in all important phases of community life is traceable in part to the enlightened guidance toward the right goals given the fledgling organization by Mr. Evans.

"Y" Boys Work Way To Camp

Members of the Boys' department of the Senate Avenue YMCA are again working their way to camp.

Swift and Company has worked out a camp help program where by boys earning profits may apply the same toward a camp fee. The project consists of the boy's selling a specially made face soap by cartons. The company releases the soap at cost, and the boy is able to raise enough money through selling to either pay all or most of his way to camp.

Of course, the amount the boy earns depends upon how good a salesman he may prove to be. Should one come to you, remember you are helping someone who otherwise might not have the privilege of going. Over twenty-five boys used this means last year of going to camp.

Camp dates for this year are July 18-28. Registration has already begun. Boys expecting to go this year must have their registrations in by July 10.

Total cost for the year's period is $25.00. For any further information, call or write the Boys' Department, Senate Avenue YMCA, 450 N. Senate Avenue, Indianapolis, LI. 2478.

BALL TICKET PEDDLER NABBED AFTER CHASE

An allegedly professed baseball ticket peddler was arrested Friday night of last week following a hot chase over Eastside streets. Parris Gilbert, 33, 1662 Martindale avenue, was charged with reckless driving and keeping gaming devices after police overtook and forced his 1951 Cadillac to a halt at 15th and Columbia.

Police say they found baseball tickets in Gilbert's car. The arrested man allegedly admitted ownership of the tickets and reportedly told police he was a ticket peddler. He holds a gambling stamp issued by the internal revenue department.

Mrs. B. Speights Retires; Leaves Legacy to Young

By JIM CUMMINGS

MRS. BESSIE SPEIGHTS

After 35 years as a public school teacher, retiring Mrs. Bessie Speights has a bit of advice for young people intending to enter the teaching profession.

Mrs. Speights, the admired and respected teacher who spent all but one half-year of her career at School 37, cautions prospective teachers against knowing "everything."

"Go in with the feeling of a child—your mind open and susceptible to education. And grow with the system," she counsels.

The teaching veteran feels that students of today are different from those of yesteryear when she began.

"BACK THEN," she recalls "you only had to go to college one year, then practice a year to get a teaching license."

However, quick to realize and appreciate the new educational processes, Mrs. Speights agrees the graduates currently receiving teaching degrees are better equipped to do the job demanded by the present-day pace of life.

Back in 1918 when she started teaching, the Indianapolis City Normal was operating to afford aspiring teachers an opportunity to learn the tricks of the teaching trade. After finishing her course there and practicing a year, she started teaching at School 26, on Martindale avenue.

Mrs. Speights spent only a half-year at 26, then moved over to School 37 where she remained until her retirement. She taught every grade there from the 2nd through the 6th.

For 11 years, she taught retarded children. Greatly successful with the special pupils, Mrs. Speights is considered outstanding in that field of instruction.

"Kindness" was the keystone to her success in this capacity, the slightly greying retired teacher says.

"I treated them just like they were average children, taking special care of their individual differences."

Mrs. Speights herself returned to "school" and received her Bachelor of Science degree from Butler University in 1938.

During her career, the well-liked teacher worked conscientiously with the PTA of School 37, at one time holding the office of treasurer.

Amid a festive atmosphere of flowers by fellow teachers and friends in the Flanner House dining room recently, Mrs. Speights' retirement was regrettably noted.

This week the former teacher moved to her country home, about nine miles out of the city on U. S. 52, where she will pursue her hobby of growing flowers.

Mrs. Speights a member of Corinthian Baptist Church, intends to put a great deal of time into church work. She is a member of the Ladies' Alliance and the Rebecca Bible Class at Corinthian Baptist Church.

DURING THE WINTER MONTHS, active Mrs. Speights plans to take her flowers to hospitals and brighten the bedsides of as many patients as possible. Assistant endowment treasurer of the American Beauty Club, she also has made plans to work with the Indiana Federation of Colored Women's Clubs.

good police work as well as two previous suspensions, was charged with being "rude and insolent" to Lt. Harold Morton during an investigation in which the two men figured.

Lt. Morton was sent to the Snow Bird drive-in ice cream stand, 2460 N. Illinois, to investigate a complaint registered by the owner, Reid H. McClain, against Lee.

During the course of the investigation Patrolman Lee and Lt. Morton allegedly engaged in an argument and Lee reportedly became insubordinate.

Lee was on his vacation at the time of the incident. He has stopped at the ice cream stand and during the visit had a dispute with the owner.

Parker will go back on duty June 20. Lee will go back July 11.

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

This has been the most unusual week in my ten years as social editor! Space is really at a premium, so if this column suddenly breaks off in the middle of a word, pray do not be surprised. Nor should you be surprised if you do not see one or two articles you may have expected.

Keeping members of Iota Zeta chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. busy was the conclave of the Great Lakes Region of the sorority, meeting here over the week-end. There were, of course, innumerable social activities, the major one a beautiful formal dance in the Walker Casino on Friday night.

Preceding the dance the sorors had been hostesses at a public meeting in Second Christian Church, with Mrs. Gladys Butler presiding.

On Saturday morning the Zetas were guests at breakfast in the FAC Home, courtesy of Phi Delta Kappa sorority, and a "cockie bar" was enjoyed through the courtesy of Phi Beta Sigma fraternity. Hostesses for luncheon that day were members of Alpha Chi Pi Omega sorority.

A highlight of the Saturday afternoon session was a "model initiation service" in which Mrs. Vernice Brent was initiated into the chapter. The closed Zeta formal banquet at Flanner House presented the regional director, Mrs. Anne W. Jordan, as speaker, and Saturday's activities closed with a cocktail party given by the Pan-Hellenic Council.

The delegates worshiped in a body in St. Paul AME Church Sunday morning and were guests of Mrs. Lois Mendenhall for brunch served by the Iota Zeta sorors. Closing out the busy week-end, remaining sorors were Sunday night supper guests of Mrs. Carolyn Cain.

National officers present were Dr. Nancy Woolridge, Hampton, Va., national grand basilus; Pereditha Venerable, Detroit, national grammateus; Ida B. King, Chicago, phylacter; Anne Jordan, Columbus, O., regional director; Leola Miles and Lucille Madry, Louisville, and Mesdames Anna Frazier, Cincinnati, and Lillian Bray, Chicago, associate directors.

The small fry were not exactly idle, a group of them helping fete Zenobia Middleton at a surprise birthday party given last Friday by her aunt, Miss Ollie Mae Middleton. Various games were played, and each guest was given a favor and served ice cream and cake.

Those present were Philip Lucas, Patricia Simms, Gregory Simms, Harvey Middleton, Jr., Linda Simms, Eltra Middleton, and Paula Jewell of Princess Ann, Md., here visiting her aunt, Miss Emma Mae Allison.

Speaking of visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hall had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. T. Edward Givens, Louisville. Joseph Nye, York, Pa., was house guest of his wife's aunt, Mrs. Emma Moore, last week. Mrs. Nye, the former Emma L. Long, was a 1937 Attucks graduate. They are interested in buying a home here to be near Mrs. Moore.

The Fortnightly Literary club met with Mrs. Ardell Cross for the last meeting of the season and elected officers. Mrs. Osa Woodall gave the book review, and Mrs. Joseph Ward gave the beaux arts. The next meeting will be in the new home of Mrs. Henry L. Greer, elected president, the first Thursday in October.

Other new officers are Mesdames George Bolen, vice-president; P. LaVelle Walker, secretary; E. D. Moten, treasurer; Eschol McCain, journalist; and J. Wallace Hall, reporter.

And for just a glimpse at the future—Members of Alpha Sigma chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho sorority will honor Mesdames Esther Powers and Helen Brooks with a bon voyage breakfast party Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. Hattie Mae Redford.

A clever invitation, complete to green envelope and green thumb motif, announces a "Parade of Tables and Flowers" to be presented by the Green Thumb Garden club Sunday afternoon in Flanner House.

Also listed for Sunday afternoon is the second annual "Rose Garden Symphony and Style Show" to be presented by the FAC Young Adults committee from 4 to 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Martin, 2525 Indianapolis avenue. They have arranged a very nice program, and Mrs. Dorothy Whiteside will model some of her latest creations. Rossie Wade will also show some of his art works. Perry White is president of the group, which is sponsored by Mrs. Thelma Herrington, with Mrs. Ruby Waddell as co-chairman.

That optimistic note I carried a few weeks ago about the possibility of regular card parties being sponsored by the young adult department of the YWCA seems not to have been in vain. An amusing poem announced a roof-garden card party to be sponsored by the group Friday night, June 26, on the roof of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA. A door prize will be given, the poem indicates. With the scarceness of card parties during the summer, surely this one will not need any particular urging to be packed to capacity!

TO BE JUNE BRIDE: William McPace has announced the marriage of his sister, Miss Mary M. McDonald, to Joe O. Collier, son of Mrs. Rosetta Conway, Yazoo, Miss. The single-ring ceremony will be performed Saturday, June 20, at 6:30 p.m. in the home of the bride, 2412 North Capitol avenue. The couple will be at home at the Capitol avenue address following a reception there on Friday, June 26.

ATTEND SORORITY CONVENTION: Women of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. from throughout the region converged upon the city over the week-end for the convention of its Great Lakes Region in the FAC Home. In addition to the various business sessions, the delegates and their guests enjoyed many social events. (See "Social Scene")

FINISHES H. S.: Miss Charlie Mae Collins, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins, 2935 Indianapolis avenue, at the age of 16 completed Shortridge high school in three years last January. Since that time she has matriculated at Indiana University, and in June received a scholarship to the university. She is a member of the Ivy Leaf club of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority.

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

They're off! The group of FAC educational tourists will leave at midnight June 23, leaving the club home on the first leg of the most glamorous of all tours.

The group will go from here to Quebec, Canada, leaving there on the S. S. Canberra on June 26, destination, Europe. During the 49 days they will be gone, they will visit six countries.

Last person to sign up for the trip was Mrs. Lottie Granberry.

The group will have a final meeting in the club home Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

The Colorado tourists met in the club home last Sunday. Last names added to the group are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ryan, Mesdames Louise Hollowell, Willa Mae Roundtree and Elizabeth Porter and Miss Gilda B. Jackson. Mrs. Ann Kennerly will be on hand to take reservations for the ten-day trip while Stirling James, FAC president, is in Europe.

The FAC Young Adults have the stage all set for their second annual garden party to be held Sunday from 4 to 7 at 2537 Indianapolis avenue. Perry White is president of the group, and Mrs. Thelma Herrington is sponsor.

A few of the tickets for the Cleveland Indians—Chicago White Sox double-header Sunday, July 12, will be on hand while Mr. James is away. Interested persons may contact the FAC office, Mesdames Luella Harper or Mary M. Howard, or the reporter.

The FAC joins others in the city in complimenting Atty. Frank R. Beckwith and others who were instrumental in making the long-time dream of the FAC—streetcar operators—a reality. Mr. James and the FAC have persistently hammered away at the company and union officials, undoubtedly softening them for the big push.

All members of the Twelve-Mo club are expected to be present Friday night in the home of Harvie Gamble, 1221 North West street, for the last regular business meeting until September.

The men will journey to Oakland on Sunday for a picnic to close the season. Games, cards, fishing and other outside activities will be enjoyed by the men and their wives and guests. The picnic has been planned by Messrs. Ravenell Fields, James Taylor and Andrew Farmer.

The Colonial Matrons Charity and Literary club will meet with the president, Miss Vena Dobbins, on June 26. A pitch-in luncheon honoring the birthdays of Mesdames Margaret Squires, Minnie O'Neill and Sara Wade will be enjoyed.

The club's bus committee, headed by Mrs. Maggie Mae Clark, will charter a bus to Chicago on July 3, leaving Mrs. Clark's home, 1632 Highland place.

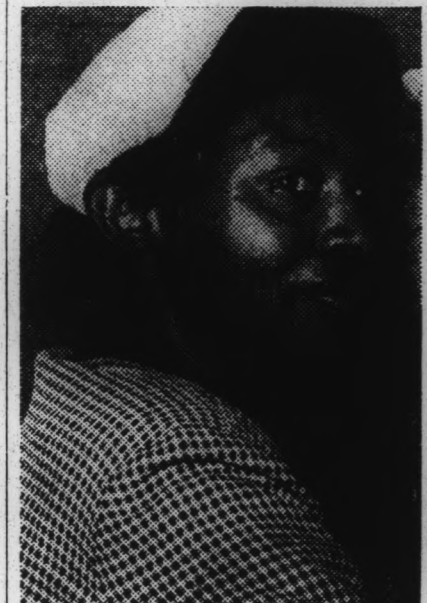

The Poro College will give a formal dance in the club home Monday.

Last Monday night Mesdames Frances Johnson, Elizabeth Woodruff, Celestine Johnson and your writer of St. John AME Church usher board represented the board at Mt. Paran Baptist Church, joining the City Usher Board Union.

Women here for the regional convention of Zeta Phi Beta sorority converged upon the FAC Home last Saturday, enjoying breakfast, dinner, a cocktail party and business meetings there. Members of the local Iota Zeta chapter were hostesses at the beautiful formal dance in the Walker Casino on Friday night.

Mrs. Elizabeth Enix, president of the Golden Circle Girls, presented Mrs. Willa Owsley and her sister, Mrs. Fannie Hyde, with beautiful leather travel books, personally engraved as gifts from the club. The sisters will enjoy the FAC tour to Europe.

Each week notes will be made on vacationers, and everyone is invited to drop the writer a card at 2248 North Arsenal avenue or call HI. 1118 concerning vacation trips or company coming in.

HONORED BY PTA: Mrs. Mae Beach, 1827 Calvin street, president of the School No. 19 PTA, was honored at a luncheon on June 10 by the PTA group in appreciation of her work during the year. Also honored at the luncheon, prepared by Mesdames Edith Slaughter, Henrietta Cheatnam and Jessie Twitty, were the principal, Mrs. Kathryn Ervin, and the school nurse, Miss Mary Sales.

Under Mrs. Beach's leadership the school has acquired a duplicator machine, engraved desk glass for the principal's desk, basketball uniforms, luncheon tables and chairs, instruments for music classes and funds for three scholarships presented to Webster Brewer, Marlene Banner and Norma Edelen.

At present she is connected with the Department of Public Welfare, Gary. Lt. Davis is also a graduate of West Virginia State and was doing graduate work in the University of New York at the time of his induction. He has just returned after serving fourteen months in Japan and eight in Korea.

A reception will be held immediately following the ceremony.

Personals and You

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Rice are proud parents of a girl born in Panama City, Fla., June 16. Mr. Rice is a former Recorder carrier.

Plans Announced For NANM Meet

Plans for the 34th annual convention of the National Association of Negro Musicians, to be held in Indianapolis August 16-22, were announced this week by the president, Dr. Roscoe R. Polin.

The six-day convention plans call for a series of public musical programs in addition to the regular business sessions, conferences and clinics.

Highlighting the musical programs will be the regularly featured Artists Night, to be presented in the Murat theatre. State and national branch nights will also attract large audiences, and the scholarship contest is expected to be one of the best in recent years.

Many of the country's leading musicians and celebrities are expected to be on hand for the Honors Night program. In addition to those to be honored, big-name musical figures from various parts of the country will provide the musical program.

Approximately 300 delegates are expected at the convention, according to Dr. Polin. Headquarters will be in Second Christian Church, and various other affairs will be held in other sections of the city.

As a kick-off to the national convention, the Indiana State Association of Negro Musicians, of which Dr. Polin is also president, has planned a music festival for next week, featuring a mass choir under the direction of Russell Brown, member of the music faculty of Crispus Attucks high school in Indianapolis.

TURNING LEAVES BOOK CLUB MEETS

The Turning Leaves Book club met last week with Miss Laura Helms. A piece of luggage was presented to Miss Shirley Walker, daughter of Mrs. Glenda Walker, secretary of the club, who is a recent graduate of Crispus Attucks high school and the recipient of several scholarships.

Mrs. Valerie Anderson was appointed chairman of the picnic committee to make plans for the club's picnic to be held July 26 at the boys' school at Plainfield.

Alpha Home Honors Veteran Board Members

The Alpha Home was scene of a reception recently, at which Mesdames Ida Bryant and Susan Harper, veteran board members, were honored for their long years of service by the executive board.

Mrs. Bryant is daughter of one of the original members of the board, Mrs. Hulda Webb McCall, who was associated with Mrs. Eliza Goff, who first fostered the idea of establishing the home for aged and infirm women as early as 1879. Mrs. Bryant became an active worker in 1886 and for many years served as recording secretary.

Mrs. Harper, who still serves as financial secretary, has been active in the affairs of the institution since early in the century.

Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. Harper were felicitated by representatives of Corinthian Baptist and Second Christian Churches, respectively, the local and Indiana Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, and other civic and fraternal organizations in which they are active.

The Alpha Home, member of the Indianapolis Community Fund, has broadened its policy and now accommodates both aged men and women. It is strictly non-profit and offers the same care which an individual would receive in his own home.

The maintenance staff, on duty at all times, is paid, but the business is administered by interested citizens on a voluntary basis.

The committee in charge of the reception was composed of Mesdames Edward S. Gaillard and Bruce Mason and Miss Frances Stout.

The Alpha Home board is composed of Mesdames John Towns, president; John Browder, vice-president; Edward Gaillard, secretary; and Susan Harper, financial secretary, and Miss Frances Stout, treasurer.

HONORED BY ALPHA HOME: Mesdames Susan Harper and Ida Bryant, veteran board members of the Alpha Home Association, were honored for their long years of service by the executive board at a reception June 7. Both are pioneer club women and are charter members of the 'Woman's Improvement club, for a long time one of the city's leading clubs.

Other members are Mesdames Louis Hill, J. Wesley Hall, Plummer Jacobs, Clarence Baxter, Carl Diggs, Flora Crossen, Nettie S. King, Priscilla Dean Lewis, and Ralph O. Bryant.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. MCGUIRE

The coming of Father's Day makes me think of someone who is near and dear to some children, but little known by others—a real father.

To me, a father is a gentleman. You cannot make a gentleman until you first find the man. A true gentleman is one whose nature has been fashioned after the highest models, who has a good sense of honor, scrupulously avoiding all mean actions.

Let's not praise good ole Dad only on Father's Day. Give him credit every day. It will help him live longer and happier when you give him that big kiss and hug and say, "You are a swell dad."

Leaving June 20 will be Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hardiman, Phoenix, Ariz., who have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hardiman, 2340 Martindale avenue. David Hardiman will return with the couple to spend the summer there.

Among other visitors in the city have been Mr. and Mrs. William Holder and Mrs. Wallace Tillman, all of Springfield, O., who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brown, 2005 Alford street. Mrs. Mabel Bush, mother of Mrs. Brown, assisted in entertaining the guests.

Lest you forget, the Metropolitan Baptist Church usher board has chosen Father's Day at 3:30 p.m. to celebrate its 30th anniversary. Rev. Albert Brown of Friendship Baptist Church will be speaker. The president, Mrs. Sarah Williams, expects several groups of ushers to participate.

Ushers are also urged to mark their calendar for the annual convention of the City Usher Union, to be held at Allen Chapel AME Church, June 24-26. Featured will be a memorial program, installation and good preaching. We hope that those now on the sick list including Mrs. Mattie Clemons, 2462 North Oxford street, will be able to attend.

Speaking of the sick reminds me of Henry Mitchell, 2125 Highland place, who has a record of visiting 365 persons yearly. Mr. Mitchell, a charter member of the City Usher Union and member of Mt. Paran Baptist Church, lives in the hearts of many people for his faithful service in consoling the sick. The illness of his wife, Mrs. Sarah Mitchell, has slowed his visits down lately.

Seemingly my son, George Frederick, will soon become a member of Simpson Methodist Church, from reports he is making to me. Well, according to Scripture, "A man shall cleave to his wife," and he is making fast preparations to get one from Simpson, Miss Dorothy Rayford.

Circle No. 3 of Simpson Methodist Church is scheduled to meet last Sunday in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins, 1425 East 15th street, with Mesdames Henrietta Patton and Evelyn Davis as hostesses. The group will take a bus to Gallatin, Tenn., July 23 to be guests of the WSCS of Key Methodist Church.

The Central District of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of the State of Indiana, F. and A. M., extends to the general public an invitation to attend the St. John Day observance Sunday afternoon at 3 in Greater St. John Baptist Church. Rev. David C. Venerable, pastor of Corinthian Baptist Church and widely known in religious and political fields, will be guest speaker. Matthew Craig is general chairman.

Funeral services for Dr. J. O. Clark were held last week in New Pethel Baptist Church with a very large attendance. Rev. H. A. King preached one of the finest sermons I have ever heard him preach, giving true facts about the entire life of Dr. Clark.

Rev. W. E. Stark acknowledged the hundreds of cards, expressing loads of thanks from the family to the senders. Dr. C. Henry Bell served as master of ceremonies, and a large number of ministers made brief remarks. At least 50 ministers attended.

The King and King Funeral Home handled the large line-up of cars excellently with the assistance of Mesdames Haidée Wilson and Kathryn J. Wood. People are still talking about the mile-long procession of cars to the cemetery.

Serving as flower girls were members of the Pastor's Aid of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, and the Pastor's Aid and Nurses' Aid of New Bethel, while deacons and ministers served as active and honorary pallbearers. The nation mourns the passing of Dr. Clark. May the Lord be ever with the good widow, Amanda.

The pulpit at New Bethel was filled last Sunday by Rev. W. N. Daniels of Tennessee, a close friend of the late pastor. Revs. Robert Sanders and Matthew Downey have been playing their parts well, assisting the officers with the services.

Mrs. Sarah E. Pollard has announced the coming marriage of her daughter, Kay Frances, to Rev. Robert L. Sanders, to take place Sunday afternoon at 3:30 in New Bethel Baptist Church. The entire church and friends are invited. The reception will be held in the dining room of the church.

Rev. Sanders has been a very active associate minister of New Bethel for the past four years.

The marriage of Miss Marthelda E. Carson has been postponed. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Washington, active in Eastside circles. Miss Carson will marry Clyde Adams.

More than 50 children are now practicing at Hill Center for the grand affair closing the clean-up and beautification drive sponsored by the Eastside Better Business and Civic League, to be held July 12 in Douglass Park. Working with representatives of the park board, Mesdames Elizabeth Tandy and Beatrice Holifield and Miss Elsie Clark are doing a fine job.

AT GIRLS STATE: The Edward S. Gaillard Unit 107, American Legion Auxiliary, will send Miss Norma Jean Stantley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Elmer Stantley, 636 West Vermont street, to Indiana University to attend Girls State. Miss Stantley, both a senior and junior member of the organization, will leave Tuesday for the nine-day stay.

Ninth Annual Dance Recital Set For Monday

Billie Smith Douglass will present her Dance Workshop in its ninth annual recital Monday night, June 22, at 8 in Attucks Auditorium. The production, which has become traditional on the local calendar, promises to be even more colorful this year than usual.

The feature number this year will be a ballet "The Park." "Children at Play" will present Delores Seath in the role of the nursemaid, with Rebecca White as the little girl with the rope, and Jimmie Anderson, Jacqui Weaver and Frances Craig as the children with the balls.

Carolyn Stephens will be the flirtatious lady in "Portrait of a Flirt."

Appearing this year in a different type role will be Billie Smith Douglass in "Park at Midnight," while in "The Witching Hour" Wilma Porter will dance the part of a lonely girl. Alice Roberts, Joan Myers and Sharon Wilson will have leading roles as figures on the fountain.

Beautifully costumed as bushes will be Fay Brownlee, Thelma Patterson, Glenna and Laverne Hampton, Patricia Loving and Patricia Sampson, while Charlene Cox, Emily Clay, Betty McCatherine, Patricia Swatts, Marilyn Sleet and Sharon Suber, will be costumed as designed and executed by Mrs. Douglass, will undoubtedly be the most beautiful trees seen in any park.

Other children featured in the program will be Rebecca White in a strut number and Jimmie Anderson, Andrea Elam, Frances Craig and Doris Taylor, who will do a bit of tap.

Carolyn Stephens not only handles a baton, which is difficult in itself, but adds tap to this to make a very effective presentation.

Patricia Swatts, who really created a sensation in her first year, will do "Cuba Doll." Tiny Jacqui Weaver will wait for you, while in direct contrast, Brenda and Carol Kelly will do a rather unusual version of the ballet in "Ballet Boogie."

Representative of the versatility of the children of the workshop is Delores Seath, who will sing the very beautiful "I Believe" and dance also in "Stairway to the Stars."

A sight worth coming early to see will be the nineteen little three- and four-year-olds in "I'm a Little Ballet Dancer."

Wilma Porter will be featured in "Vanessa" and "The Brave Bulls." Now assistant to Mrs. Douglass, Wilma has become widely known for her exquisite toe work, and these numbers should prove a showcase for her talent.

In response to many requests, Billie Smith Douglass will join Patricia Anderson in a tap routine. Patricia, as you will remember, is the little Miss who stops the show with her tap. She is being groomed by Mrs. Douglass for an audition with Paul Whiteman in September.

Other children taking part will be Louella Cox, Dorothy Chris-

Henry Cain will be recital pianist, and Guest Artist Betty Hutchinson will exhibit the musical ability which recently won her a scholarship. This young lady is destined to a great future, and the Dance Workshop is proud to present her as it has other promising young artists in the past.

Among out-of-town guests will be Jeanette Grider and Harland Randolph. Miss Grider is the very talented director of the Grider School of Dance in Columbus, O. If Fate is kind and foot injury heals in time, Miss Grider will dance "La Camparsita" on the program. Mr. Randolph is the young man who won so many honors at Ohio State this year.

Fox Lake Resort Opens For Summer Season

By A STAFF CORRESPONDENT

It indeed makes one pause and count the birthdays when the summer season rolls around so swiftly. It seems only yesterday since the Fox Lake resorters were enjoying the lovely lake with its numerous interests, recreation facilities, and relaxation.

Yet, it is another year, and the president, Rev. P. D. Jacobs, opened the season with the regular Memorial Day meeting at the Fox Lake club room. As usual, the meeting was well attended, with folk present from many cities and states.

Several families had got a little ahead of the season by visiting their resorts during spring vacation, getting them ready for the season.

The regular business proceeded after a devotional period, and various

Know Your Minister

REV. J. INMAN DIXON
Pastor of Simpson Methodist Church

Rev. J. Inman Dixon, the present pastor of Simpson Methodist Church, native of Nashville, Tenn., one of eight children of Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon, as an infant was christened into the Methodist Church, where he grew to know God and serve the church. Receiving his elementary education at Nashville, he was guided through childhood by spiritual inspirations and sound judgments of devout religious parents, superseded by the strong and ever present inner force early identified as the calling of God; he was converted at the age of 10.

Preaching as a mere child to pets assisting with revival services and converting his elders at the age of 12, he soon became known in his locale as the Boy Preacher. Awakened at 3 a.m. by the calling of God in answer to his prayers, he entered the ministry at the age of 14.

His first responsible church job came at the age of 12 when he organized a Children's Choir which he directed for 8 years, receiving pay for radio appearances with Station WLAZ Nashville. He organized a Young Men's Choir while attending high school, and held various offices of the church. At the age of 18 he acted as pastor at Dixon, Tenn., for six months having a membership of 36. Later he was appointed as supply preacher, with a circuit of two churches at Murfreesboro, Tenn.

As a founder Rev. Dixon has built two congregations. 1. Columbia, Tenn. — Meridith Methodist Church—organized during the Depression and at the time had only three members — two years later had 100 members. 2. While pastor at McKinley Methodist Church, Dayton, Ohio, Rev. Dixon was inspired and spiritually urged to conduct a survey. In 1950 the Dixon Methodist Church was founded and approved by the District Superintendent and Bishops, and in such a short time is free from all debt and boasts a membership of 100 and Sunday School enrollment of 200 children, plus an outpost Sunday School and layman's Home for the Aged.

In connection with an abiding consecration, Rev. Dixon is a graduate of A. and I. State Teachers College, Nashville (1935), and Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga. (1938). In 1946 he received his M. A. degree in Psychology of Religion at Butler University. He has done graduate work at Yale University and Ohio State University towards his Ph. D. degree.

His tenure of pastorates is: Nashville Conference — 6 years; Atlanta Conference — 9 years; Lexington Conference — 11 years. Through the Divine Power of God, and daily inspiration of his devoted wife and companion, Tommie, Rev. J. I. Dixon has dedicated his life to the services of his fellow men.

NEW YORK (ANP)—A Catholic bishop of Raleigh, N. C., received indirect support in his order merging two churches—one white, one Negro—when Catholic bishops of Southern states denounced racism as alien to Christian principles.

In a statement before a convention in Richmond, Va., of the Catholic Committee of the South, bishops of some 13 Southern states said they look forward to the day when "the ideal of Christian brotherhood will displace from our Southern scene all traces of the blight of racism."

Bishop Vincent S. Waters, prelate of the Raleigh area of the Catholic Church, recently ordered the merger of the two churches in Newton Grove, N. C.—Holy Redeemer and St. Benedict—into one church.

HOSTILE WHITES resented the order and showed their objections by causing a near-riot at the first joint service of the two churches. Since then, they have placed a boycott on the church. Bishop Waters, however, has stood fast by his decision for the merger.

The statement of the bishops denouncing racism, read in part:

"There is no denying that there are certain practices, and behavior patterns in the South, as in other parts of the country, which are alien to Christian principles and ideals. The eradication of these practices and patterns was and is to be the task that must be undertaken before it is too late."

"We sincerely hope that the day will come when the ideal of Christian brotherhood will displace from our Southern scene all traces of the blight of racism. Let us Catholics, true to our convictions, set the pattern."

"The time for action is now—to bring Christ to the South and the South to Christ."

playing at Victory Field. The court order had been obtained by the Indianapolis ABC's, local sepa club which has played several games at Victory Field before sparse gatherings. Oliver Harrison is president of the ABC's and P. L. Harden the club's attorney and guiding mastermind.

This writer is no legal eagle, and before this is ever we may have to call on Eddie Blake, Indian's pitcher who is studying law at the University of St. Louis.

But as we understand it, the ABC's are trying to prevent Negro American League teams from playing at Victory Field on the grounds that it is an infringement upon their territorial rights in organized baseball, also upon their corporate name.

The ABC's are members of the recently organized Negro Major American and National League. Attorney Harden contends that the Negro American League has never protected its name through incorporation.

EDDIE STUMPF, Indians' general manager, expressed strong disapproval of the legal move. Baseball men traditionally have tried to keep the game out of the courts.

"I don't see where they have territorial rights because they don't have a park," Stumpf observed. "We have helped these people in every way this spring—we are interested in bringing good Negro baseball here—and then they turn around and do a thing like this."

Stumpf tied up both club's share of the receipts as a precautionary move until the legal dust shall settle.

The crowd would have been even larger, promoters said, if rumors had not been circulated throughout the city that the game was to be canceled. Sportscaster Luke Walton of WISH broadcast denials of the rumors in an effort to counteract them.

It was also charged that Clowns' Memphis advertising signs were torn down.

THE GAME ITSELF broke into fist-fuffs in the 8th inning at the first base coach's box, as Manager Buster Haywood of the Clowns and First Baseman Fate Sims of Memphis exchanged a lively flurry of punches. Haywood was expelled.

Attacks Basketball Coach Ray Crowe officiated as base umpire, with Mike Bisesi behind the plate.

Toni Stone, Clowns' girl second baseman, got a big hand from the crowd. She handled two assists before departing in the 5th inning. She appeared to have a "girl's throw," out we understand she recently suffered a wrist injury.

The leadoff batter, Toni struck out and hit into a force play. Julio Toledo drove in two of the Clowns' runs with a double and single. Sam "Buddy" Woods was the losing pitcher.

"But I want only the latest cases cited. I am keenly interested in the latest decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court in similar cases (involving racial segregation)."

"I intend to follow the Supreme Court," he declared.

The suit was brought by Mrs. Jessie Woodbridge, 1916 E. Elliot and Mollie Bowling, 1820 S. Governor street, Evansville, charging they were discriminated against because of race, although they had otherwise qualified for apartments in the Sweetser Homes project.

Kelly Jarboe, executive director of the Evansville Authority, admitted he separated the races as such, but said more housing for Negroes had been planned.

Lincoln Gardens was constructed for Negroes only in 1937, he said, but has been continuously fully occupied ever since.

The colored women said they applied at the white project after being unable to find adequate housing elsewhere.

Attorney Richardson seeks a temporary restraining order barring the authority from refusing to accept Negroes in any public housing project solely because of their race.

HAPPY FAMILY

The Pet Milk Photographer Visits THE WILLIAMS FAMILY of St. Louis, Mo.

New roller skates are Raymond's pride and joy. Annie Lee doesn't have any trouble keeping up with him, though!

Triplets may be three times as much work as one baby, but they're so much fun that the extra work doesn't matter—at least, as far as Lee and Lillian Williams are concerned. Lee, a wheeler at a fire-brick plant, is "as good with the babies as I am," says Lillian... takes turns at baby-sitting on Sunday mornings so she can attend Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church, where both are members. Lee is church usher, Lillian a member of the First Aid group there. She's an honorary member, too, of the Haywood Singers, a popular concert group, and plans to join them again as soon as her babies are older. Busy as she is, Lillian still takes time to make cookies for Annie Lee and Raymond... and, like so many of the good things she cooks for her family, they're made with Pet Evaporated Milk. She likes the rich flavor Pet Milk gives foods, likes it, too, because it's the one milk she can use for the triplet's formula, for the older children to drink, and for all her cooking. And she likes the economy of Pet Milk—it costs less generally than any other form of whole milk!

Making up Pet Milk formula for babies is often an after-work job for Lee—and he's an expert now! Raymond watches to see how it's done.

Doctor recommended Pet Milk for triplets at birth... all three, Michael, Michelle and Mitchell are sturdy, healthy, at 6 months.

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Something new for you "Teen Talk" fans—a guest columnist! She is Miss Jackie Suggs, who has done several feature articles on Attucks for The Recorder.

"One Enchanted Evening!" That is what the Attucks graduates had last Tuesday. Maybe the most important time of that day was when they received their diplomas, but the most enjoyable part was certainly the senior prom.

The prom, which lasted from 10:30 p.m. to 1 a.m., was held in the boys' gym, with LaVon Kemp and his band providing the music for the evening.

Short formal almost took over with the new look, but there were some very lovely long ones. Two short young ladies, Barbara Crowds and Shirley Walker, wore similar white evening gowns, which were about the loveliest there.

Jean Martin and Myra DeBow also wore white gowns, but theirs made them look tall and modest.

One of the loveliest gowns with pastel colors was worn by Anita Woodruff. It had colors from pale yellow to reddish brown.

The style for the boys called for white dinner jacket and bow tie, cummerbund, and black trousers. Some of those featuring such an outfit to a "T" were Joe King, Eddie Washington, Robert Flowers, Bailey Robertson, Chester Brown and Robert Wesley. Some of the fellows didn't wear cummerbunds, preferring double-breasted dinner jackets or blue suits.

Roses and orchids were the favored flowers.

Among the couples seen surrounded by friends were Cartier Conley and Imogene Thompson, Cornelius White and Myra DeBow, Winfred O'Neil and Jean Martin, "Plute" Mason and Virginia Carbon, Nathaniel Bradley and Nancy Pettigrew, Edward Green and Mary Mason, Karl Davis and Shirley Walker, Edward Neblett and Mary Thomas, and Andrew Watkins and Marlene Neblett.

The fabulous night and morning ended up with various breakfast parties given by many of the grads or their parents.

Now, let's come back down to earth and dig what's happening.

The Snooper won't take responsibility for this, but a letter, signed "Carolyn Montgomery" came in saying "Would you let Andrew Watkins know that I have a crush for him and ask him to give me just one hello? He doesn't know who I am, but he knows that I like him, and I would also like to have an introduction to him."

Of course, Teen Talk isn't running a lonely hearts club this season, but if anything good comes out of it, let us know!

While out last week we caught a few of our friends pulling sneaks, the kind of sneaks everyone should know about. . . . James King and Marie Miller are still coming on strong. We wish there were more girls like Marie "Dimples" Miller, sweet and nice. We wonder if Jimmy will be able to keep her, since there are eyes wide open all the time on her. In fact, noticed her with John Scott last Wednesday night.

Nathaniel Bradley, since you've got yourself a car, you'll be able to see more of your girls in one night. Poor Nancy Pettigrew! It's a shame she stays in the house so much she doesn't know what's happening. She's probably satisfied to ride in your car once a week. But don't worry, Nat, we won't tell her!

It seems as though the romance between Robert Marion and Shirley Young has hit the rocks. It doesn't seem to affect Shirley much, though, because James Dillard seems to have stepped in at the right time. Make good use of your time, James.

Willie Harris, why don't you get wise to the fact that Delores Foster is simply wild about you? Now the story is different with Chester Brown: Chet, make sure you never lose your voice, because when you do, you'll lose almost all your girls. There's one you don't care too much about who likes just you, not your voice.

All right, all you jealous boys can stop being sad now. Those Texans can't steal any more of your girls. They left Monday afternoon!

Marlene Neblett, can't you stop Jessie Bryant from beating your time with Andrew Watkins? Say, Thomas Cork, you made it to the train station mighty fast Monday afternoon.

It's about time you were noticing Carolyn Parrott, Robert Wesley. . . . Good for Rosie Allen! She's got John L. Cooley under control. Just play it so cool, you freeze, Rosie. . . . Sally Rhodes, weren't you happy to get out for a while, even if Floyd Wilson was your escort to the prom? Dickie Dickerson, how could you???

Say, kids, you're really jammin' it is up right with those letters. Keep 'em coming; remember, the Snooper has a sore throat and can't say "SHAZAM" these days, so can't be everywhere at the same time. Let the others dig what's getting it with your gang.

That's all for now. Play it cool 'til later.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Make yourself a "Snooper" for your gang! Send in "talk" regularly and let others know what's happening with you. It's YOUR "Teen Talk."

ude to the decision that is expected later this year relative to segregation in the public schools of this country.

"We have developed a deathly fear of certain words," declared the Georgian. "The do-gooders would have us believe that to discriminate is bad when the truth of the matter is that discrimination is one of the basic traits of human nature."

"We discriminate as to food we eat, the clothes we wear, the kind of car we drive, the friends we have. There is scarcely any human activity where discrimination is not practiced."

"In spite of this obvious fact, we are now told by the highest tribunal in the land that we cannot allow any discrimination in certain sharply defined fields."

He argued that because some restaurants require men to wear coats, the Supreme Court might as well say that a restaurant is discriminating when it requires a man to wear a coat within the establishment as to say that it is discrimination because a person is refused service because of the color of his skin.

Rep. Wheeler admitted that his bill would have little chance of passing but he said, "Feeling the way I do, there was no sense in just sitting around and doing nothing."

An attorney for the Coordinating Committee for the Enforcement of the D. C. Antidiscrimination Laws would not comment on the measure except to say that it has no chance of passage.

and Miss Brown followed him, pulling her knife as she got up.

Miss Brown began swinging the knife at Mobley, according to Cassorla's statement, and the man tried to fight her off by throwing a salt shaker at her.

MOBLEY RAN across the tavern with Miss Brown in hot pursuit, Cassorla says. The woman cornered Mobley near the juke box and stabbed him, according to Cassorla.

Cassorla claims he was never asked by police to make a statement. However, he made a statement to the Coroner following Mobley's death.

The Recorder found that the statement he made to the Coroner and the one made to The Recorder are substantially the same.

Also The Recorder learned that Gable Farr, 710 Douglass, made a statement to the Coroner on the basis of what he saw while in the tavern the morning of the stabbing.

Gable's details of the stabbing were practically the same as Cassorla's.

However, he added that he believed the argument started over money Miss Brown allegedly tried to get from Mobley.

On the basis of his investigation, Coroner Roy B. Storms ruled he killing "murder."

By MRS. WILLA L. HUNT
MUNCIE — Within little more than five weeks, the Delaware County grand jury has freed two persons charged with murder.

Elsie Elliott was released from the county jail June 11 after a grand jury was convinced that he "did not mean" to kill his friend, President Gillard, on May 8 during an argument over money contributed to buy whiskey.

Elliott testified that Gillard started a fight by striking him in the jaw, after which Gillard ran into a four-inch-blade pocketknife, severing an artery in his groin.

The grand jury failed to return an indictment against Elliott, and he was released.

On April 28, Mrs. June Ferguson, who was on trial for second-degree murder, was freed. She had been charged with the fatal shooting of her common-law husband, John Mills Murphy, on the afternoon of Jan. 26.

A MASS MEETING was held June 11 in the Munsanya Nursery of representatives of various religious groups, business, civic, and social organizations, individuals to form a league or auxiliary to work with sponsors of the school, the Entre Nous club, the Parents club and the board of directors.

Mrs. Karl Kizer is chairman of the planning group. Any person in the city interested in the aims of the group is eligible for membership.

Members of the Phyllis Wheatley club closed activities for the summer by entertaining at an eleven o'clock brunch on June 9 in the home of Mrs. George Myers, 904 South Blaine street.

Members attending were Mesdames Ruth E. Pettiford, Lynn Dunn, Sr. Hosea Shoecraft, Schuyler Goings, Bracken Campbell, John Henry, Cecil Goens, Jessie Mae Williams, Margaret Taylor, Louis Day and Ellord Pettiford.

SCHEDULED TO APPEAR on programs here are Rev. A. T. Batts, Indianapolis, to be guest speaker Sunday afternoon at Antioch Baptist Church, and Robert Rogers and his singers, Robert Michaels, and James Sander, also of Indianapolis, in a musical program at Union Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. D. R. Bedenbaugh, A.B., B.D., D.D., pastor of Trinity AME Church, Spartanburg, S.C., is conducting revival services at Shaffer Chapel AME Church.

Rev. M. Thompson and the Gospel Meditators of Indianapolis appeared in program last Sunday afternoon and night at the Paramount Community Gospel Church. The Gospel Troubadours appeared at Union Baptist Church last Sunday.

A children's program was presented for the Sunday school of Calvary Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon at the church. Included on the program were members of the beginners', primary and intermediate departments, among them Pamela Williams, Sylvia Davis, Robert Davis and

Richmond Masons Sponsor Kick-Off For $50-A-Member Foundation Drive

RICHMOND—In line with a plan made by the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Indiana F. and A. M., Richmond Masons at a recent meeting pledged individual contributions of $50 each for the Masons' Centennial Foundation fund.

The foundation was created at the last session of the grand lodge, held in Indianapolis in August, 1952.

The plan calls for a gift of $50 from each member of every subordinate lodge in the state, to be received by the Grand Lodge by 1956. The amount received, says Cornelius R. Richardson, Grand Master, will "place the Grand Lodge in a financial position to undertake a program of any character in keeping with its objectives with confidence."

PRESENT PLANS indicate that the capital would remain untouched, only the interest accruing being used in keeping with a Masonic policy to make no assessments, the contributions would be strictly voluntary.

Among other things, it has been proposed that a history of Prince

Hall Masonry in Indiana be developed. The foundation would also establish a scholarship fund and a common fund from which subordinate lodges could borrow for assistance in acquiring property.

At the June 8 meeting of Quinn Lodge No. 28, local members had their "kick-off" effort for the foundation, and 31 members pledged $50, $300 being collected in cash that night.

Samuel Owens is worshipful master of Quinn Lodge, and Clyde Ewing is secretary.

FORWARD STEP FOR SCHOOLS?

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. Kathryn Ervin who has been principal of School 19, and now has been transferred to School 29 to become the first Negro principal of a mixed school in the city's history.

At first glance it appears that the Indianapolis School Board has taken a significant forward step in integration of school administrative staffs as well as pupils. School 29 which is at 2101 College avenue, also was the site of the first and up to now the only integration of teaching staffs. We understand that the majority of the white teachers at 29 will remain under the new setup.

If there is still a question mark about the title of our editorial, it is because we have a few doubts which perhaps cannot be resolved until next fall. Such as:

1. What will happen to School 19? Up to now it has been an all-Negro school situated in the midst of a white neighborhood. This anomaly has given rise to a current lawsuit against the School Board.

Mrs. Paul Bennett, a white principal, has been assigned to replace Mrs. Ervin as head of School 19. This probably means that it will become a mixed school.

2. What will become of the teachers at School 19? Mrs. Ervin we are informed, was given her choice of remaining as head of the school or going to School 29. We understand that a number, if not all, of the School 19 teachers are being transferred to the new School 64.

3. What will be the makeup of the student bodies at the three schools involved? School 29 at present has about 80 percent Negro pupils. Will Schools 19 and 64 be predominantly white or Negro as to pupils?

These questions may appear a bit technical to some, but they are very important in determining whether the school system actually is moving ahead.

It is one thing to assign Negro staffs to predominantly Negro schools where a handful of white children attend, while making certain that white principals and teachers have charge of schools with a majority of white pupils.

It is another thing altogether to assign both principals and teachers to schools without regard to race. That is what the Anti-Segregated School Law prescribes, and that is what is needed in this critical hour for America.

We hope the opening of school in fall will show that the latter course has been taken.

HATRED BEGINS AT HOME

The Federal Court suit of two women challenging the Evansville Public Housing Authority's alleged refusal to rent apartments to them because of their race, focuses a spotlight on what is perhaps the most fundamental segregation of all—segregation in housing.

We have heard various theories as to which form of jimcrow—economic, educational, political—"underlies all others." For our money it is hard to beat segregated housing in maintaining a condition of prejudice and hatred that poisons every sphere of life.

We would die if need be to uphold the Indiana Anti-Segregated School Law, and yet how much good does it actually do other than establishing a principle? Integration with all its benefits can affect only a small minority of children so long as Negro children are confined to certain residential areas while white children live in others. The great majority of pupils can attend the schools nearest their homes and still be attending segregated schools.

Economic equality and fair employment practices will never be underrated by this newspaper. However, they have an intimate relation with housing because they are affected by men's opinions of each other. Attempting to maintain job equality with employers and fellow workers who believe you to be a second-class person is like wading through quicksand. Segregated housing is both the badge of inferiority and the means of continuing it.

It is in the home and the neighborhood rather than the school that children receive the greater part of their education, we believe. Men and women, generally speaking, only begin to live when they get home from work. Regardless of what they do at the plant or downtown, it is in their own neighborhoods that they become human beings.

Where segregation prevails, the people in their neighborhoods fall prey to fantastic notions about "those different folks over there." Experience has shown that where there is mixed housing and neighbors rub elbows over the back fence, foolish prejudices wither and die in the light of knowledge. Perhaps that is why the system of jimcrow housing is so rigidly upheld by those who desire to "divide and rule."

INTEGRATION IS A TWO-WAY STREET

One of the most far-reaching developments of the present day, we believe, is the decision of Lincoln University in Pennsylvania to become a completely interracial institution.

Lincoln, which claims to be the first institution in the world to give collegiate degrees to Negroes, will celebrate its centennial next year. It is starting its second century with a pioneering move fully as great as the one which launched it in 1854. The nature of the change in policy is also an index to the change in the world during the past 100 years.

At the time when Lincoln was founded as Ashmun Institute, while slavery still had a decade to run, Negro students were entirely barred from all other institutions of higher education. Thus WHITE MEN FOUNDED THE UNIVERSITY FOR THE EDUCATION OF NEGROES.

Consider the change in the picture. Negro youth in ever larger numbers have come to attend "white" universities, some of which have lost a portion of their whiteness through the employment of Negro professors. We are at the threshold of a time when all colleges everywhere will be open to all students without regard to race, creed or color. Not long after, the same will be true of the college faculties.

This integration of hitherto white universities, without at the same time integrating the Negro institutions, would of course result in the downfall of the latter. This prospect caused dismay to some educators.

But O ye of little faith! These persons had not reckoned with the possibility that NEGROES COULD RUN A UNIVERSITY FOR THE EDUCATION OF WHITE PEOPLE.

To put it this way is, of course, to oversimplify a bit. We understand that Lincoln intends to integrate from top to bottom. Nevertheless it will remain historically and traditionally a Negro institution. As such, it will include a Department on African Affairs. Any young person, white or Negro, who desires to study in such a department would naturally enroll at Lincoln.

This is but a small sample, we believe, of the things that "Negro" universities could teach to white Americans better than any "white" university ever could. Those who truly evaluate the talents of Negro Americans need have no fear of integration.

BABYHOOD—A CALL TO LOVE

How many times have you read in a newspaper of some brutish man or woman beating an infant in the cradle to death because of its crying? Have you known or heard of a helpless little one being left alone to be burned to death on account of the difference in color and neglect of an insensate parent?

Have you observed a baby dying slowly or being slowly-destroyed by physical or mental weakness due solely to lack of hygienic knowledge on the part of those responsible for its well-being? Have you seen babies born of parents rotten to the core as a result of indulgence in the social sin?

ARE YOU AWARE that misguided mothers have been known to feed a baby on beer and whiskey?

How often have you read or heard of an unwanted child being left at a foundling's home or at a stranger's door?

In marked contrast to the preceding is the happier state of the offspring of a mother who is a mother and a father who is a father.

Such a child is apt to receive sustained tenderness and civilized care however hard-pressed financially those responsible for his being may be.

They will welcome him as being a well-spring of pleasure, a messenger of peace and love, a link between the angels and men, a challenge to the best that there is in them.

A TRUE MOTHER lives genuinely in the present at the side of cradle. In imagination she pictures the future of her child.

To her he is the boldest of pilots, guiding her fearless thoughts happily through all the fleeting years.

Some think motherhood is the perfection not only of women but of all humanity as well.

To genuine mothers, the first baby pictures the entirety of loves, joys and sorrows.

Did you ever listen to the softly murmured croonings issuing from a mother's heart to her inestimable treasure?

Have you noticed a puny struggler, strong in his weakness, his little arms stretched forth in irresistible appeal?

THE SOBBING CHILD trying to hold back any open manifestation of his liquid grief melts all hearts to pity and compassion. The tiny despot asks so little that all reason and all nature appear to be on his side.

His ignorance is more charming than much knowledge; his little sins seem to be virtues. All through the day between his naps he sputters and coos.

Take him outside and you will find him overcome by the light and the objects that come to his view. By lamplight the shadows on the wall fascinate him.

The death of a baby perhaps does not cause as much grief as that of a youth or an adult. But it is hard for a real mother to bear. It does not hurt others as it pains her.

TO HER the vacancy in the home and the heaviness of heart linger longer. She relives the tiny hand on the heart, recalls the soft cheek on her bosom, remembers its helplessness, wants and trusting eyes. A link is snapped in the chain of association.

Hers was the task of willing devoted service. She had heeded the gradual feature development, detected every new sign of infant intelligence, heard the first utterance of each stammering word. She had been the refuge of its fears, the supplier of its wants and needs.

EVERY ACT of devotion and sacrificial service wove a new link which endeared the child to her.

And when it dies a part of her own life seems to die with it. It hurts her to give up living memories, tender associations.

She shrinks from folding the timid hands which so often had held her in trust and love on its sinless chest, surrendering them to Death.

CORONATION HANG-OVER—A SOUR NOTE

LONDON (ANP)—The greatest show in earth is over. The Queen is still visiting the suburbs of London, attending receptions by Mayors and Councilors and showing herself through the streets, in brief, doing her Royal job and doing it well.

It is high time the Queen was given a rest: she must have had a very trying time for weeks before the nerve-racking ceremony of the Coronation.

Few trades unionists would care to work as hard as the Queen of the Commonwealth and Empire, but they don't mind her working all the hours that God gives her so THEY can enjoy a spectacle.

Newspapers are hashing stale news; bygoners are now hot rissoles.

COMMONWEALTH PRIME MINISTERS' CONFERENCE

Coronation Day was the coldest 2nd of June for 82 years. It came after weeks of beautiful sunny days. Was it an omen?

Not for the Queen, but for the colorphobic Commonwealth Ministers, it may have been.

A U.S. magazine quotes Colonial Secretary Oliver Lyttelton's opinion of Africans: "British Colonial Secy. Lyttelton, telling House of Commons that baboons in Gambi, West Africa, were so numerous they threatened to seize the government. 'I am happy to state, however, that the danger of a change in administration has now been averted."

One is reminded of Hitler's similar remark and what it cost him. Or of the classical "Naked fakir" description of the greatest man (Ghandi) of our age by Sir Winston Churchill and what it cost Britain.

It is a great pity that these colorphobes are not repressed before they develop such stupidity, or at least severely punished when they insult other national leaders whose color happens to be different to their own.

LYTTELTON BELONGS to the same type of dictator as Hitler and is the greatest menace to Anglo-African relations.

I apologize to Africans for his idiotic remark. For a House of Commons that made no criticism when the remark was made I feel little but contempt.

It goes to prove what I have written: viz. both the Government and Opposition are determined to maintain white imperialism.

Africans alone cannot hope to beat the forces of "law and order" which the colonial powers backed by U.S.A. can bring against them, but they can be sure of help from the peoples of the Pacific and Indian Oceans' basins including all Moslems.

Nigerian leaders are showing a spirited challenge to Lyttelton's attempt to trick them into another phony constitution and enchain them again, like blind Samsons, eternally grinding corn for the highest price level big business tycoons whose greed is insatiable.

So long as the colonial peoples kiss their chains by accepting bribes of office and titles and money there is no hope of emancipation for them. India, Pakistan, Persia and Egypt have shown the only way to freedom for colonials.

CROSS OR CRESCENT IN AFRICA?

Judging by Sen. Robert A. Taft's latest release it will be a toss-up whether King Canute, Don Quixote, Senator Taft, or those who follow the Taft plan, President Eisenhower or Prime Minister Sir William Churchill will be considered the world's most stupid men.

With Don Quixote's adventure Cervantes ended the Age of Chivalry in roars of laughter. The Age of White Imperialism is liable to end in a tragedy—a Global Blood Bath that will drain the life-blood of millions of mostly innocent people if Taft and Churchill get their way.

Africans are now desperate. In London's Hyde Park one can hear Africans telling anybody who cares to listen that they will not submit any longer to British oppression and exploitation.

I have heard them in Hyde Park and in Beaver Hall and Holborn Hall telling audiences that they—they were

VOLUNTARY AMBASSADORS—NEGROES TREK ABROAD

It is a widely known fact that foreign reaction to the treatment of Negroes in this country has in recent years produced a change of attitude on the part of government officials and others in regard to granting more of the blessings of democracy to America's most embattled minority.

It is equally well known that the knowledge foreigners have of Negroes is fragmentary and inadequate because of the distortions and suppressions of the American media of communication such as books, magazines, newspapers, radio, television and the lies and half-truths of white American travelers either private or official.

It has been a source of much chagrin to informed Negroes that most Europeans and Asians look upon Negroes as members of a child race, convulsive, illiterate, servile, shiftless and poverty-stricken objects of the white man's exploitation and scorn. In vain have Negroes attempted to correct these false impressions which white American propaganda has spread abroad.

The recent changes have come about largely since the war which saw thousands of intelligent Negro service men stationed in Europe, Asia and Africa in jimcrow outfits. The stellar role of Dr. Ralph Bunche in bringing accord in Palestine gave the lie to the bromide that Negroes are either clowns or buffoons incapable of measuring up to the intellectual attainments of the white man.

One of the greatest factors in influencing foreign opinion of the American Negro, however, has been the great trek of Negro American tourists abroad. Shortly after World War II great excursions of Negroes to Latin America caused many of those who had depended on Hollywood and the American press association to revise their opinions upward.

MORE RECENTLY EUROPE has had its share of Negro voluntary ambassadors. The fact that Negroes in considerable numbers can afford to make the trip to Europe for pleasure is itself revealing, and the fact that these darker visitors spend the same kind of money and as freely as their fellow countrymen in no wise hurts them with the tourist people.

This summer will probably see more U. S. Negroes traveling in Europe than any year in history. It should be a matter of pride to indians that that of the hundreds of Negro tourists crossing the Atlantic this year between 50 and 60 will go from the Hoosier capital. The largest contingent will be the 40-odd sponsored by the Federation of Associated Clubs.

The FAC, which annually sponsors a major trip for its members, is doing a double service. On the one hand it is giving its members an education in international relations, while at the same time it is educating the people in the countries it visits about the much maligned U. S. Negro.

At a time when there is a rising resentment against Americans largely due to the insufferable arrogance of most American visitors, Negro visitors can do much to regain for America much of the prestige she formerly enjoyed abroad. Indeed, most of the Negro travelers to foreign climes in recent years have reported that they were treated better in the foreign lands than they had ever been treated at home, and in turn they brought back with them a more favorable impression of their hosts than the average white

American tourists who felt ill-at-ease among so many foreigners.

WHILE MUCH GOOD can come from the visits abroad of these private American Negroes, more direct ways of combating years of false information about the Tenth American should be set up.

First, Negroes should put pressure on Hollywood to give Negroes more dignified roles in the pictures which are exported to foreign countries. Second, American newspapers and magazines should be prevailed upon to carry stories of Negro achievements and to carry pictures of Negroes using the widely advertised American products. Third, American history books need to be corrected to give the contributions of Negroes to American culture and the actual conditions of American Negroes since Reconstruction. Fourth, Negroes should be appointed to diplomatic posts by the Federal government. And last churches, the YMCA, the YWCA and the American Red Cross need to send more Negroes to their posts abroad.

All of these things need to be done now, but meanwhile it is fortunate that intelligent Negroes in large numbers are journeying abroad spreading a helpful type of propaganda, which in turn creates an external pressure on white America to get busy extending interracial democracy.

We know that the Negroes who are going abroad have no such lofty purpose as creating a more favorable impression of us abroad, and it is probably just as well that they don't because, that might have a damaging effect upon their enjoyment in escaping jimcrow for a few weeks.

Their service to democracy will come as a by-product of their pleasure, but it will be just as valuable for that reason we will add an extra note of cheer when we tell them "Bon Voyage."

A PRAYER

EDNA SHANS BAILEY
Marther, Tenn.

Dear God, give me a gentle spirit
Keep me mild and meek
Thy kingdom and its righteousness—

This would I seek Help me to share another's grief
To all, Thy mercy show
I would be free from grudge and hate—

Oh, keep me so,
Give me the strength to live each day
As humbly as I should.
Believing Thy bounteous love
fulfills my every good
Help me to know, when day is done
And night is dark and deep,
Thy Spirit watches over me
While yet I sleep.

Chiefs—would die rather than submit to the imposition of a Federation of Central Africa. And reports from both Northern and Southern Rhodesia, as well as Nyasaland show that a majority of Africans are preparing to resist.

IN KENYA many Moslems among Africans are linking up with their brethren in Sudan and in Arab States and Asia. Sudanese are already determined to have self-government and they have the backing of all Islamic peoples.

In Nigeria Moslems are determined that they shall no longer be exploited under phony constitutions. Many of these fear domination of a United Nigeria by Christians in the West and East, but none—except a few British stooges—wishes to endure the degradations and humiliations of the color bars and cartel exploitation they have suffered for decades.

British politicians and newspapers have tried to deceive British Islanders and others who read or hear their views by asserting that the Moslems—as Moslems—of the North fear the Christians—as Christians—of the West and East. That is a deliberate lie.

The Northern elections were not free elections at all. The representatives of the British stooges and not of the people were elected through the electoral colleges.

NINETY NINE POINT NINE percent of Nigerians demand emancipation. Christian nations, backed by their churches, politicians and press refuse to emancipate them. Millions of Nigerians are Moslems.

It would be foolish for any Christian to imagine that Moslems seeking freedom denied by Christians would fail to accept willing Moslem and Asian help to gain what all Christians claim as a right.

RACE PREJUDICE AND THE DOLLAR

In race prejudice and the dollar we have two of the most powerful influences in American life. They are stronger by far than religion and common sense, as important as these are. Both religion and common sense qual before the challenge of race prejudice and the dollar. Religion must ride in the rumble seat when the dollar and prejudice accompany Americans in the vehicles of ordinary behavior.

This is a sad and sickening admission, but candor dictates that it must be made. Both race prejudice and the dollar take precedence over God and righteousness too invariably in the ordinary intercourse of American life.

At the table of the ordinary priorities, God and religion must wait until race prejudice and the dollar are served. That this state of affairs is threatening the safety and survival of our great country does not seem to make much difference.

Americans are busy worshipping at the shrine of the dollar and race prejudice, hoping doubtlessly in their hearts that at some "more convenient season" God and righteousness will be sent for and considered.

TO BE SURE, righteousness is on the American agenda, but away down the line. Between making a dollar and manifesting race prejudice the American spends most of his time.

Race prejudice is to the American poor white man his only luxury. Outdistanced in the struggle for survival and doomed forever to be a competitor of the lowly Negro, the poor whites cling tenaciously to the luxurious feel of being "better than" somebody, and incidentally that somebody is a Negro.

Take away this dubious luxury, the American poor white man would be destitute and desperate indeed.

To be sure there are some wealthy whites who are prejudiced; but they invariably come of poor extraction, even as there are some poor whites who are devoid of prejudice because they come of better social and economic extraction.

The few poor whites who are without prejudice and the few wealthy who have prejudices are only exceptions that prove the rule.

AS ADIAU STEVENSON so wisely said here in Richmond during his campaign, the real core of the trouble in the race conflict is economic, with poor whites and poor Negroes being left to fight over gnawed bones.

Race prejudice is the poor white man's weapon with which he fights for his gnawed bone.

Negroes have little or no race prejudice and when they feign prejudice, they do it as a defense mechanism. As soon as the white man is ready to be sensible and sane, the Negro is invariably ready for the question.

Admitting that prejudice and the dollar are almighty in our social and economic and political motivations, the question arises which is the more powerful, race prejudice or money? Money is obviously true when we review life beyond the South.

The yankees have long since subordinated prejudice to the dollar but in the "Solid South," prejudice has seemed the more powerful influence. This seems to be proven by the way southerners are willing to finance prejudice often at back-breaking expense.

BUT WHEN SOMEONE began to estimate the cost of race prejudice in the tens of billions of dollars, he was going to the heart of the matter.

One of the realizations of the expense of race prejudice, race prejudice will be out and common sense in.

The school equalization movement throughout the South would tend to prove that prejudice is stronger; but a closer inspection will convince one that the present movement toward equalization is sponsored by the older people who happen to be in power but their children and their children's children will have other notions and will act accordingly.

The contemplated integration of the border states stems not so much from a breakdown of prejudice as of a build up in appreciation of the dollar. The entry of Negroes into southern baseball is largely a matter of finances.

Jackie Robinson's influence on the gate receipts at Ebbetts Field in Brooklyn was a powerful influence throughout baseball where shrinking receipts have ominous implications.

The too prevalent tendency of Negroes to "blow in" money for the good times of the present is weakening the dollar structure of the race. Nobody wants to integrate paupers and beggars.

Moore, Maxim in Battle of the Aged

Joey Hopes Father Time Will Get Archie for Him

By LUIX VIRGIL OVERBEA For ANP

While other divisions are seeking young fighters to stir up interest, the light-heavyweight division is led by a bunch of old men—two of the oldest being champion Archie Moore, 37, and former champion Joey Maxim, 31.

These two greybeards are going to meet in a showdown return match Wednesday at Ogden, Utah. It will be for the title which Moore took from Maxim last December in St. Louis.

Moore won that bout so handily that it is surprising Maxim is even entering the same ring with him again. Joey's manager, Jack Kearns, has a sharp eye for money, however, so Joey does not mind what punishment may be coming; his way when he considers the fight involved.

Maxim knows so much about fighting that he rarely is hurt in the ring. He was durable enough to whip Ray Robinson on a TKO by taking a beating but outlasting Robinson in the insufferable heat. Even the referee went out during that battle.

Joey probably wants to out last Moore in the same way, only this time letting age take care of Archie. Maxim does not have an offense to go with his defense, so he is comparatively harmless.

All Moore has to do is pace himself well, and he should outpoint Joey and retain his title. He is very likely to do all that is necessary and remain the oldest active champion.

Turpin Makes 'Final Twosome'

Last week Randy Turpin won the British version of the world's middleweight championship by easily, although not aggressively, outpointing Charley Humez in a 15-round bout before 55,000 people in London.

As a result Turpin will face the winner of a June 19 bout between Carl "Bobo" Olson and Paddy Young in Madison Square Garden for the undisputed 160-pound title.

Olson is a cutie with a fairly good punch. He does not get hurt in the ring, and he is surprisingly strong. He is not too interesting to watch, but he does put up a good fight.

Young is an aggressive, flailing brawler who likes to mix it up. Fans enjoy his style of battling. Often he is tagged early, but he has great recuperative powers and usually comes back to win.

He is a type who is hard to whip because he never gives up. As we see it at this writing, however, Olson has just a bit too much on the ball for Paddy. Bobo will outbox Paddy and make him miss. Bobo's stamina will enable him to withstand Young's late rallies.

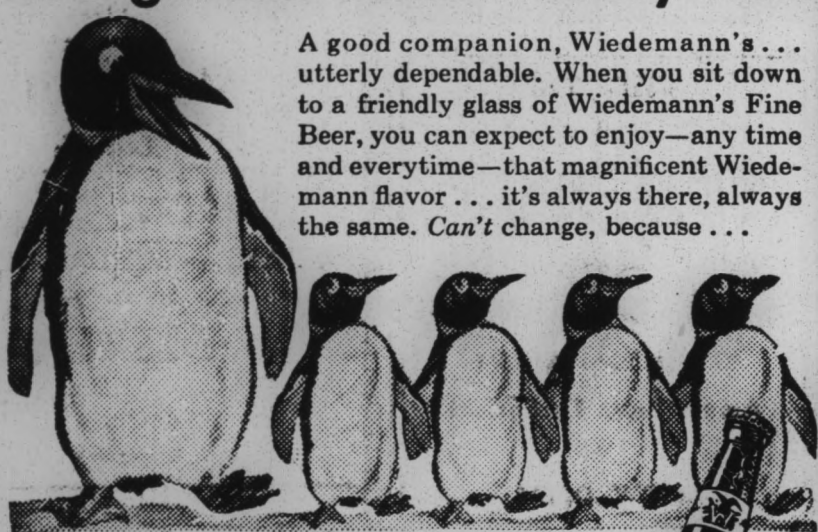

THIS WOULD MAKE OLSON Turpin's foe in the showdown next September. Speaking of Turpin, he will have to be better than he showed against Humez—judging by what newspapers say of the battle—if he is to whip Olson.

Smith Could Win Flanner Meet All By Lonesome

Russ Smith of Anderson, the state's No. 1 all-around track athlete, could be the winning team all by his lonesome at the 16th annual Flanner House and City Recreation meet on Saturday.

The Anderson College flyer will be running unattached in the cinder carnival to be held at Attucks' track.

Don't let that fool you, though. A "one-man team," Russ is entered in three running events and two field events. He was 9th in the decathlon at the U. S. Olympic tryouts last year.

During the past college track season, Smith scored 33 and 31 points on two occasions. If the field is fairly evenly balanced Saturday, don't be surprised if the winning team is "Smith."

THE GIRLS' PORTION of the thirteenth carnival will get under way at 9:30 a.m. There will be two divisions, junior and senior. The Lockfield Girls have entered full teams in both divisions, while squads from Anderson, Bloomington and local parks have also entered.

Forty events in five divisions will make up the boys' meet, starting at 1 p.m. Besides Smith, numerous other track stars from throughout Hoosierland will participate.

John White, chairman of the Track Committee, has lined up a group of competent officials under the direction of Powell Moorhead of Tech high school. Mr. Moorhead will serve as director of the meet and official starter in the afternoon.

Al Spurlock, Attucks track coach, will be the morning starter. Entries will remain open until 9 a.m. Saturday. They may be mailed to Flanner House, 333 W. 16th st.

tucks, the greatest beanpole of them all. After receiving no bid to the game, Wee Willie failed to graduate and then signed with the Harlem Globetrotters.

A THIRD TIGER STAR Bailey Robertson, was called in by Coach Nicolson to fill in a scrimmage Tuesday as Jack Wiltrout of South Bend Central was slightly ailing.

Flap, who missed the All-Star team by only a couple of votes according to our information, conceivably might still make it if one of the regulars became ill. Not wishing anybody any hard luck, but Bailey will enter Indiana Central College next fall.

IN BETWEEN DRILLS this week, the All-Hoosierland netters were entertained by various local concerns. On Thursday they were to be the guests of Riverside Amusement Park, which traditionally has entertained the players but which otherwise bars Negroes.

In short, the only way for a Negro American to get into Riverside is to go to high school and practice basketball until he becomes good enough to make the All-Star team.

Close Finishes In Hound Races

Close finishes are the rule in Naptown's latest sport, greyhound racing, which will again be offered together with stock car races Saturday night at the West 16th Street Midget Speedway.

Last week three of the canine contests were won by less than a head. It is not unusual to find less than a length separating the entire field of eight greyhounds as they cross the finish line.

King, Griffin Named to North-South Grid Tilt

Joe King, hard-hitting Attucks line-backer, and Matt Griffin, South Bend Washington tackle, have been named to the North squad in the Indiana North-South all-star football game to be played in August.

King, the son of Mrs. Evelyn King, 1502 Carrollton, performed for the Tiger basketball as well as football teams his junior and senior years. His gridiron exploits won all-city and second all-state listing last fall.

The popular 18-year-old stands 6'2" and weighs 185. On offense he played end his junior season, and guard or center in 1952.

Griffin is a 6'1", 185-pound tackle who received All-American mention as well as all-state. He played three years at Washington.

Last fall, as co-captain, Matt led his team to the championship of the eastern division, Northern Indiana High School Conference. Then he weighed 20 and was ineligible for the East-West NHSC playoff, which the Panthers lost to East Chicago Washington.

Lamar Lundy of Richmond, All-American end, also will play in the game to be held Aug. 8 in Butler Bowl. The contest is sponsored by Bloomington Vulture 843 of the 40 & 8.

There will be a 10-day training period prior to the battle, with the North working out at Wabash College and the South at Hanover College.

The best part about being a major league ball player—besides the money—is the swell people you get to meet. We've got a wonderful bunch of fellows on the Dodgers. Everyone is always pulling for the other guy, and when we win a game, it's a team victory, from the top brass to the bat boy. That's the spirit champs need.

The one fellow we've been rooting for extra-hard this year is one of the nicest guys I've ever met—Gil Hodges. Early this season Gil was still bothered by the bad luck he had during the World Series. He just couldn't buy a base hit. After every game Dessen would tell Gil he still had faith in him, and the only way to shake a slump was to relax and keep swinging.

Victory Field Gets All This And Toni Too

What looks like the "Game of the Year" in sepiu baseball at Victory Field will take place Friday, June 26, beginning at 8:15.

The contest will bring together the two top attractions in the Negro diamond sport—the Indianapolis Clowns, featuring Miss Toni Stone at second base, and the famed Kansas City Monarchs.

This will be the second appearance here of the Clowns within 10 days. (We are writing before Wednesday's Clowns-Monarchs contest.) It appears that Promoter Wesley O. Jackson, working with the Indianapolis Indians management, is making good on his program of bringing back big-time baseball to Naptown.

When the Clowns and Monarchs met at Kansas City in the season's opening game, a whopping gate of 18,000 included many white as well as Negro fans.

This caused sports writers to revise their earlier opinions that "Negro baseball is dead." It is now generally agreed that the sepiu brand of the sport has a vital part to play in the present setup—and at this pace our fair city may again become a tan baseball metropolis.

VETERAN MANAGER BUCK O'NEIL of the Monarchs includes on his roster such Negro American League leaders as Left Fielder Duke Henderson, pacing the circuit in hits, doubles and total bases; Outfielder-Catcher Tom Cooper and Second Baseman Sherwood Brewer, tied for the home run lead; and Pitcher Johnny Jackson, the league's top hurler with four victories against no defeats. Other Monarchs include Outfielder Ernie Johnson, batting .348; Cuban Catcher Juan Armenteros, .305; Southpaw Pitcher Dick Phillips, with a 3-2 record and hitting .300; Shortstop Ernie Banks, out of Army service and batting .278; Hank Bayless, third base, .277; Francisco Herrera, long-ball hitting first baseman, .273.

On the mound staff in addition to Jackson and Phillips are Dagoberto Nunez (3-1), Gene Richardson (3-1) and 18-year-old Bill Dickey (0-1).

The Clowns have the league's top hitter in Second Baseman Ray Neil, sporting a fancy .409 average. Incidentally Toni, the beautiful ball-hawk, is hitting .217—not bad for a gal.

Local fans will have seen the Fun-Makers in action by the time this is read, if rain does not intervene.

Indians on Warpath

The power-packed Indianapolis Indians, hitting on all fours, will return Saturday for a 6-game home stand against Columbus and Charleston.

The Tribe won 5 of the first 6 games on their current road trip as they slammed league-leading St. Paul and Kansas City around at will. They had driven to half a game out of first place in the American Association by Wednesday.

DAVE POPE'S 1st inning triple with 2 on base got the Indians off to a flying start Tuesday as they beat Kansas City, 7-5.

CHATS WITH JOE LOUIS:
Ruby Taylor, popular singing thrush, spent several minutes chatting with Joe Louis, former world's heavyweight champion, during his appearance here at the Lyric Theater. Miss Taylor talked to Louis about a song she composed, which is titled "Bomber Joe," and which she wrote at the age of 12 in St. Louis. She was considered the youngest composer in that city at the time.

Louis Jordan, "Mr. Personality," will appear in person with his celebrated dance band at the Southside Armory, 2015 S. Penn. St., on Sunday nite, June 28. Jordan and his crew appeared here recently with a musical package which included Ella Fitzgerald and Frankie Laine, and hundreds of fans were unable to see the great maestro, but the spacious Armory will provide ample space for all Jordan followers.
The singing, swinging maestro will feature such popular song hits as: "Caldonia," "Beware," "Good Time Roll," "Lookout, Sister, Lookout," "Is You Is Or Is You Ain't Ma' Baby," etc.
Advance tickets are now on sale at The Indianapolis Recorder and other business places throughout the city. For table reservations —Call Edwards Radio and Record Shop, 405 Indiana Ave., LI. 0467.
Busses will leave from in front of the Circle Theatre every 15 minutes direct to the Armory.

THE FEMININE HALF of New York's first interracial man and girl broadcasting team, CECILIA VIOLENES, inaugurated a new weekly radio program last week entitled "Sentimental Morning" over station WLIB.
A pert 27-year-old, Cecilia first came to the attention of listeners with her "Wake Up New York" show over WOV, in which she and her partner, Max Cole, became the first interracial broadcasting team.
From WOV, Cecilia went to WWRL where she became known as the "Cinderella Girl" and was cited as a "sultry-voiced speller."
MARY ELIZABETH VROMAN, attractive teacher who won the 1952 Christopher Award for her short story "See How They Run" which appeared in Ladies' Home Journal, will be interviewed by Father James Keller on the filmed TV show, "What One Person Can Do," Sunday, June 21. Her story has now been made into a movie, "Bright Road," starring Dorothy Dandridge and Harry Belafonte.
JAZZ PIANIST TEDDY WILSON and vocalists Eddie Fisher, Frank Sinatra and Rudy Vallee, were the latest stars of the entertainment world to join the Ford Motor Company 50th anniversary telecast. They shared the spotlight June 15 with Marian Anderson, Amos 'N' Andy and Ethel Merman, among others.
SENTIMENT FROM SARAH VAUGHAN meant cash for New York's Cafe Society when she opened an engagement at the club where she got her first big boost.

MUSICAL UPBEAT

By BOB WOMACK
"LONG LIVE THE KING" has been predicted for Nathaniel "King" Cole, who's recuperating fast from an illness. The singing 88'er expects to return to the driver's seat better than ever. Although Nat first formed his trio back in 1937, it wasn't until 1949 that his release of "Nature Boy" skyrocketed him to the top and he began to realize that his voice created a demand for his records. Nat gives credit to his brother, Edward, who encouraged him to join his Chicago band in the early '30's, and he later moved on with the "Shuffle Along" revue which folded in California. An overbearing customer who was quieted with Nat Cole's rendition of "Sweet Lorraine" was the discoverer of Cole's vocal ability.

The singing maestro really gained nationwide attention when he waded "Straighten Up And Fly Right," not to mention the other hit tunes that have kept Cole on top of the heap of the recording industry for the last 15 years. If somebody had predicted Nat's success about 10 years ago, he would probably have smiled and said, "You're kidding." But the shy entertainer who hails from Montgomery, Ala., has been acclaimed one of the country's jazziest pianists and top vocalists. For the last few years Cole has been soloing and making hit tunes with strings behind him, such as "Mona Lisa," "Too Young," "Pretend" and others. His television and movie performances are excellent, especially his showing in the film "Small Town Girl." When Nat "King" Cole returns to the limelight from his illness, plans are being made to spotlight him in a Broadway stage production, it has been reported.

THE SENSATIONAL JAZZ PIANIST ATTRACTION at New York's Band Box is now featuring the keyboard artistry of Earl Hines, Oscar Peterson and Joe Looco. My, what a battle of music! More hot weather and hot music seems to be clicking, and gigs are popping like popcorn at a circus. The change of the weather has opened the Avenue for the local "cats" and popular bandleaders are doubling like mad, while others are playing two for one every Saturday night. The shortage of musicians on weekends has stirred the community, and many programs are postponed to the early part of the week. "MUSICIANS ARE WANTED!" So grab your hat and coat, brush off your horn and get your chops in shape and get on the sunny side of the street where the bread is right.

What do you cats think of having a Musicians' Baseball Game some Sunday morning early? I think it would be a grand idea. Well, plans are being made by 88 and tenor sax star James Dupree to have such a game in the near future. Watch this column for more information and date.

SOMETIME AGO I STATED that Jimmie Cole and his George's Bar combo were to have taken another location gig elsewhere in the city and that a certain name unit was to have been on the bandstand at George's. Since the release of the above statement, many of the cats have informed me that I was wrong on the story. I might add that I wrote this column on FACTS, not from what I HEAR. Evidently the people involved must have changed their plans with regard to this situation. No hard feelings, I hope.

A few Sunday evenings back Mr. and Mrs. Merrill (bandleader) Laswell celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary with a beautiful house party. It was while affairs that you don't forget for a long time to come. Many of the big names in the local music world were present. Laswell, here is wishing you and the Madame many, many more happy anniversaries.

HARVEY FRENCH AND HIS SENSATIONAL COMBO are waiting a while at the Golden West Club. Miss Marie Martin, 88'er, is really making a name for herself—not forgetting vocalist Bill Harris too.

SOMETHING NEW HAS BEEN ADDED to the Club Udel Hardy EDWARDS, popular young owner of the Northside pleasure spot, told this reporter that within a week or so his new section of the club will be open to the public. There will be a grand opening. Watch this paper for announcement. The Udel will be the largest club in the city. The Bobcats' combo play for your musical pleasure on the following nights: Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays 8:30 p. m. till 12:30 a. m. Come out and meet the genial host in person. Mr. Edwards and his lovely sister, Emily, who is the manager. And by all means, don't forget "Big Mike," bartender.

F. J. A. S. H. The Musicians, Vocalists and Dancers Poll will be EXTENDED ANOTHER THREE WEEKS in order to give the many newcomers a chance at stardom. So don't forget, you still have three more weeks in which to vote.

When in need of music for your affair contact the Stuff Watson Entertainment Service, located at 502 N. Senate ave., or call PL. 018. I understand he has what you want in the line of entertainment. . . . It is rumored that the management of the Oriental Cafe down Avenue-way is in the market for a combo if the price is right.

COUNT BASIE, HIS ORGAN AND ORCHESTRA are now appearing at the Club Riviera in St. Louis. . . . Sax Kari, bandleader and songwriter who filed suit against the Kenece Publishing Co. of Detroit for $12,500 damages, revealed that the highly controversial tune, "Please Wait For Me," was inspired by a suicide during the war years. Kari brought suit when the Kenece Company, with whom he has an exclusive contract, refused to grant the right to release the tune. . . . Billy May's band is no more. Billy left his orchestra to go back to directing TV shows. His big unit was expected to stay together a long time. . . . Orchestra leader Duke Ellington has a plan to promote careers and help provide opportunities for the vast number of little known but highly talented entertainers and performers who so desperately need such backing. Ellington announced that he will call for the cooperation of an interracial group of big names in show business to lend their prestige and support to the campaign. (Note: Duke and band were in town last week on their way to Chicago, where they opened a three-week engagement at the Blue Note on June 12.)

THE BOBCATS COMBO played for the Elks' State Grand Ball which was given last Tuesday night in the New auditorium of Elk Lodge No. 1233, located at 2422 Northwestern ave. Many out-of-town visitors were present.

Maria Adams, Johnny Otis, Mel Walker, Red Lyte at Popular Spot

Johnny Otis and Marie Adams will headline the "Juneteenth Day in Indianapolis" honoring our policemen and firemen at the Sunset Friday nite, June 19. The dance is being held in connection with the Emancipation Proclamation Celebration and should attract a capacity crowd.

Also appearing on the star-studded triple attraction are: The 4 Blue Notes, Mel Walker and Red Lyte, plus Johnny Otis' Barrel House revue.

Miss Adams will feature "I'm Gonna Play the Honky Tonks" and many other fine numbers, while the Otis crew will get off with "Harlem Nocturne" and "Mambo Boogie" in one big nite of fun and joy.

Twenty percent of the net proceeds over $1,500 will be given to local charities. Advance tickets are now on sale at $1.75. Admission at the door is $1.98. For table reservations—Call PL. 0876.

Gospel Cavalcade Draws Huge Throngs on Tour

PHILADELPHIA (ANP)—Approximately 25,000 who witnessed the first three performances of the Ward Gospel Cavalcade of 1953, supported the growing belief that gospel singing is not only big business, but a continuously growing one.

The first of the shows was held in Philadelphia where the attendance was estimated at about 15,000. Similar performances in Newark, N. J. and Baltimore, Md., last week drew another 10,000 persons and skyrocketed the combined ticket sales to about $40,000 for the three.

Buddy Johnson Offers Bond To Name Joe Louis Tune

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (ANP)—Buddy Johnson, popular bandleader, announced this week that he's giving a $50 Defense Bond to the person who sends him the best title for a tune which he has written in honor of the ex-heavyweight champion Joe Louis.

Johnson's band will be the musical attraction on a gigantic show that will feature the ex-champ and blues singer Ruth Brown. Johnson several years ago wrote another hit tune "Did You See Jackie Robinson Hit That Ball," which attained jukebox praise.

WHITE DANCER DECLARES "I WANT TO BE A NEGRO"

By DAVE CLARK
DETROIT (ANP)—Jessie Young, exalting inter-racial dancer formerly of the famous Minsky circuit, declared last week in a sworn statement here that she no longer wants to be known as a white girl and that she will spend the rest of her life as a Negro.

Jessie, whose real name is Marjorie Ann Godin, is Canadian born of French and Indian descent. She says that she has been trying to be a Negro since the age of 13 and that she is now declaring herself a Negro.

The young dancer who has been the headline attraction in some of the top white clubs in the country as an exotic dancer, advises that she prefers to work only in Negro night clubs or black and tan spots that use Negro talent. She says she wants to be a Negro because she has found out that the Negro race is the greatest race in the world and that Negroes have proven to be her best friends.

BILL ROBINSON'S LIFE TO BE FILMED

NEW YORK (ANP)—Plans are afoot here for a movie on the life of the late Bill "Bojangles" Robinson. Already auditions are being held and the sifting for supporting roles is under way.

Encouraged by the almost assured financial success of the Joe Louis story, the producers have interested backers who are willing to go along with the idea on the great dancer and entertainer.

"Jazz For Breakfast" at George's Bar Sat. A. M.

Dear Naptowners:

Once again we at George's Bar and Orchid Room, want to chat with you and bring you our faithful—up on current developments of our program which is dedicated to you and inspired by your ceaseless patronization.

Of course you know our Jazz for Breakfast, the momentous Saturday morning feature that everyone has continuously talked about since its inception several months ago. We know you approve because of the tremendous support you've given us.

However, we want once again to make our date and time schedule of this event clear.

You see Naptowners, some of our colleagues have apparently patterned operations and programs after ours' and consequently are billing Saturday morning affairs just like ours', under different monikers, though naturally.

Incidentally, we got word recently from a New York publication that our Jazz for Breakfast is the first program of its type held anywhere in the country.

And we want you to know that the original Jazz for Breakfast—the only real Jazz for Breakfast—comes off in our place EVERY OTHER SATURDAY morning, beginning at 8:15 a.m.

We would like for you to watch the papers for the exact dates. Then too, look for new innovations in our program. We have lots in mind. And everything we do is dedicated to you.

Jazz for Breakfast will come off this Saturday!

Thanks again Naptowners for your indulgence, and your continued support. You are our inspiration and our guide.

Sincerely,
Leo Lesser Jr., owner, and Employees of

"Warm" But Sad Welcome Awaits Prodigal Prince

LOS ANGELES (ANP) — What happens when an African student bicycles from Chicago to California, signs a contract with a Hollywood studio, co-stars in a motion picture, takes to narcotics and gets duped into a forgery racket, is nothing less than a modern fairy tale come true.

It was only last summer when Mashood Olabisi Ajala, 24, Nigerian medical student, bought a bicycle and set out for Los Angeles and a Hollywood career. Enroute to his destination, he lectured to campus groups and was jailed in Topeka, Kansas for disturbing the peace.

After nearly 30 days on the highway he arrived in Los Angeles and looked up Ronald Reagan, an overseas acquaintance, who in turn introduced him to motion picture star Robert Mitchum.

Now, Ajala's dreams were coming true. Mitchum got the Nigerian prince a minor role in one of his pictures as a faithful servant. UPON COMPLETION of this picture Ajala was forced to pay hospital bills for his illegitimate son after a long and bitter court fight instigated by a nurse, a former Chicago girl, now in California.

But Ajala's troubles didn't end here because he was soon hauled into court and was convicted of forgery. The judge, however, granted him probation after he testified he had been duped, even into indulging into taking narcotics on several occasions. When granted probation Ajala dropped to his knees in the court room and called on Allah to bless the judge.

With this varied record behind him, Ajala only last week was fighting deportation and fell off a radio tower after saying he would remain perched there until assured he wouldn't be deported. He dropped only about 16 feet after being aloft nearly 13 hours. IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS had allowed him to remain on the tower after he threatened to jump if they went after him. The official said the numbing cold finally forced Ajala to start for the ground and that he lost his hold and fell. He suffered a sprained back, they added.

Ajala said he faced tribal execution if he is returned home. "My father will kill me if I am sent back," he shouted from his perch 90 feet in the air. "This is the United States, not Russia."

Admitted to this country for the purpose of studying, Ajala was majoring in psychology at Santa Monica City College. When he failed to keep up with his studies, followed by his series of sordid experiences, the Immigration Service ordered him deported.

The African prince contended that returning home before finishing his education would be regarded as betrayal of a tribal trust and that he would be killed by his wealthy father.

District Director Herman Landon of the Immigration Service described Ajala's claim he would be executed as a "figment of his imagination. We've deported other people to Nigeria and I've never heard of them being executed."

Predicts The South Will Kayo Jimcrow

WASHINGTON (ANP) — The Negro cannot lose in the battle against school segregation, declared Dr. Guy B. Johnson, University of South Carolina sociologist, last week.

Addressing the final conference session of the Association of Former Interns and Residents of Freedmen's hospital, the sociologist expressed his belief that the Supreme court will deal the "knock-out" punch to segregation, declaring it unconstitutional.

But on the other hand, he contended that if the high court only declares that facilities must be "separate but equal" the emphasis will be placed on equality which will result in placing too great a financial burden on the South, and segregation will gradually disappear.

IN REFERRING to the abolition of segregation in the schools, the North Carolinian declared, "If and when this legal atom bomb is exploded, the South is going to experience a great shock."

Many of the states will try to dodge the issue, he said, and "drastic and unintelligent public policies" will be adopted. He said the states which have threatened to withdraw public schools will do years of "educational injustice to the majority of their children."

Negro leadership, he said, must be strengthened in this "crisis of

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

Cleaner, Fresher..

You can even see why Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke? You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! You can see why when you strip the paper from a Lucky by tearing down the seam.

First, you see that your Lucky is made better, because it remains a perfect cylinder of fine tobacco—round, firm and fully packed.

Second, you see Luckies' famous fine tobacco itself—long strands of fine, light, truly mild tobacco with a rich aroma and an even better taste. Yes, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

Nothing—no, nothing—beats better taste, and Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother. So...
